

At the end of each term the drawings must be neatly bound together between covers of approved pattern before they are finally examined, and the student's name, together with his year, term and date, neatly printed on said cover.

The Council reserve the right of disposing of the drawings as they may think proper. No drawing may be removed from the school without permission.

To pass in Surveying the minimum percentage required for practical work must be obtained in the field work.

No drawings will be counted which have not been made in the drafting rooms, and during the hours allotted to such work.

No field notes will be counted which have not been taken in the field, and during the hours allotted to such work.

The penalties for the infringement of the above two rules will be determined in each case by the Council.

VACATION WORK.

Vacation work must be handed in during the first week of the ensuing session, otherwise it will not be counted.

Vacation notes must be on construction only, and consist of not less than 20, nor more than 30 pages. The sketches must be free-hand pencil drawings with figured dimensions.

Theses must be written on ordinary foolscap, and consist of not less than 20, nor more than 30 pages.

The minimum percentage of marks required for practical work must be made in the case of vacation notes and theses.

No notes, whether taken during the session or the vacation, will be counted unless made in the standard note books of the School.

Theses must be accompanied by carefully made drawings and illustrations separated from the text, and be bound between flat covers.

The sketches for the second year thesis in the Architectural Course are to be made on one side of the sheet of a sketch book and mounted on cardboard or paper 15" x 22".

The Architectural students are advised to spend the vacation in an architect's office.
