at the age of sevency six years, after an illness for the past eight months. Deceased had been a resident of Perth for the past four years, previous to which he had resided at Tweed for many years, and latterly in Toronto.

The death occurred suddenly in Perth on Saturday morning last of Mrs. David Young at her home on Grant street at the advanced age of eighty-four years. The late Mrs. Young came to Perth with her husband from Ottawa, sixty years ago, and after residing here five years they took up their home at Manion, where deceased had lived up to October last when she removed to Perth. Mrs. Young was predecased by her husband fourteen years ago. A family of thirteen children was born to Mr. and Mrs. Young, nine of whom are living.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart, of "Kenmore Farm," Appleton, announce the engagement of their only daughter Mary (Mamie) McDongall to Herbert Lorne McGill peldest son of Mr. Thomas McGill, of Vancouver, B.C., the marriage to take place on February 28th.

Over twenty million dollars was spent in postage stamps in Canada during the past fiscal year, and the Post Office Department had a surplus of $2,849,271. In the year 1914-15 there was a deficit of acarly three millions. The improvement is due largely to the war stamp tax.

It is denied by officials in charge of the internment camp operations that there is any intention to release any interned aliens for work in mines. Some were released last September for work in the British Columbia mines but there was a considerable protest from the miners and the prisoners were withdrawn.

Mr. Alexander Moffatt, ex-postmanter of Fembroke and the last of a generation of pioneers in that district, passed away at his home on Sunday, Feb. 4th, in his 8sth year. His father was Pembroke's first postmaster, receiving a project ment from the Imperial Government in 1846. The late Mr. Moffatt succeeded his father, and he, in turn, was succeeded by his son, W. A. Moffat.

The proceeds of the New Year's dance.

The proceeds of the New Year's dance held by the young ladies of Innisville, in the Orange Hall, amounted to seventy-three dollars. Fifty dollars of which was used for the purchasing of a cot in the Princess Patricia Hospital, Ramsgate, Kent, England, the balance, wenty-three dollars, was handed into the Camadian Red Cross Society, Carleton Place.

At the Fairs and Exhibitions somewhole held secently in Toronto, R. J. Buskell, manager of the Kingston fair, in a discussion said that when he took over the management his fair spent $70 advertising and there was a deficit. "Last year," he said, "he spent $600 in advertising and the business of the fair showed an increase of 400 per cent, and there was a surplus. Such argument needs no comment. The proof is right at hand. It pays to advertise:
