MAYOR TO MAYOR-ELECT

To the Editor of The Courier: Dear Sir,-On my return to the tity to-day, my attention was called to the statements made in your issue of the 9th reported to you by Mr. MacBride. I say Mr., because on the 31st of December his aldermanic powers to spend money ceased and he is not now, nor will he be Mayor of Brantford until next Monday. Until then I have the honor to powers which it confers. Some of his tatements were that the Mayor, with the assistance of Ald. Bragg, this morning, launched the work of cutting trees on the city property, etc., and a number of men were placed at work by Superintendent Unger, etc. "This wood will be delivered at cost." 'I shall be firm if the situation de mands it." said "Mayor" MacBride. I may here positively state that

Mr. MacBride had nothing whatever to do with the action of Ald.-elect Bragg or of Superintendent Unger this being done before I left the city to go to Hamilton, as both Mr. Bragg and Mr. Unger well know. My admiration is almost compelled by the audacity of the Mayor of Brantford that is to be, but is not vet, in his pretence that he acted in my place and in presuming to take credit for acts that were anothers. Most intelligent people in Brantford know me well enough to be assured that I can perform the functions of the Mayor's office, and did not and would not allow Mr. Mayor-elect MacBride to perform them for me. One would have supposed that once he was elected to become Mayor, that he would not further seek to mislead the people on the fuel or any other question, but would try to maintain the honor and dignity of the office.

Mayor of Brantford.
