(EARTH NEWS) — Americans who've had to turn in their POW bracelets since the release of the Vietnam POWs can now replace them with a "POA" bracelet. Paul Krassner notes in the latest edition of THE REALIST that a San Rafael, California group is now selling Prisoner of America bracelets to aid "radical" political prisoners in American jails.

The POA bracelets include the name, prison number and date of incarceration of numerous American political prisoners, and sell for $5.50 a piece. Editor Krassner urged his readers to wear them, or to make their own, noting that, in his words, "Otherwise these prisoners remain unknown as those in Auschwitz were unknown to the Good Germans. Don't be a Good American," says Krassner.
