This week's movies

All the President's Men is in the McInnes Room Thurs. Nov. 13. Mabuse II [Inferno des Verbrechens] is showing in room 2805 of the LSC, and the NFB is presenting Profile of NFB Animators II, Co Hoedman and Kaj Pindal. Friday at midnight The Rocky Horror Picture Show is disturbing the McInnes Rm. Thurs. Nov. 20, the NFB presents Individual Effort vs. Teamwork.

As of Friday, Nov. 14, Paramount 2 opens with Battle Beyond the Stars, while #1 holds Ordinary People again. The highly recommended The Elephant Man is held over at Scotia Square, and the Cove opens with Humanoids From the Deep, which also starts at Downview 2: Downview 1 keeps the phenomenally popular Private Benjamin, and #3 holds Smokey and the Bandit II. Penhorn 1 holds Private Benjamin, 2 keeps Battle Beyond the Stars, and 3 inexplicably retains the noisy The Awakening. Wormwood has Sympathy for the Devil (1 plus 1), the 1968 film of the Stones and the evolution of the title song on Friday; Saturday and Sunday they have the Rolling Stones' Altamont concert movie Gimme Shelter; Wednesday they have A Touch of Evil (Orson Welles, 1958).
