OF No.5 (McGill University) UAS/RCAF, Montreal, P.Q.
(UNIT OR FORMATION)

| PLACE | DATE | TIME | SUMMARY OF EVENTS | REF. TO APPENDICES |
|-------|-----------|------|---|--------------------|
| | June 1/44 | | Effective this date No.5 (McGill University) University Air Training Corps is now known as the No.5 (McGill University) air University Air Squadron, RCAF. Thursday June 1st., Parade and Drill followed by A/C Rec., Administration Examination for 2nd year, Signals, Engines and Drill. Mr. Hill of the Y.M.C.A. arranged with the National Research Laboratories for a tour of the plant during the afternoon. This tour proved most interesting and the trainees were very pleased to have the opportunity of seeing everything. Mr. Levy of the Research acted as guide. In the evening a class in aldis lamp was held. | |
| | June 2/44 | | Friday June 2nd. in the morning, the 1st year trainees were all given a flight by Communications and it goes without saying that all trainees were most interested. In the afternoon a Signals (Buzzer) Examination with Navigation., Drill and A/C Rec. An Aldis lamp class was held in the evening. | |
| | June 3/44 | | Parade and Drill with a full day of lecturesA/C Rec., three periods of Navigation, Aldis Lamp and Drill. | |
| | June 4/44 | | Sunday-- The barrack block cleaned and inspected. Trainees free from 1100 hours on. | |
| | June 5/44 | | Parade and Drill with lectures in A/C Rec., Navigation, Engines Examination, Aldis Lamp, Navigation Examination, which is of three hours duration. | |
| | June 6/44 | | Parade and Drill followed by A/C Rec., Examination and an Aldis Lamp Examination. The Afternoon was used for returning of all equipment and packing up of Orderly Room supplies and equipment to be returned to Montreal. | |
| | June 7/44 | | This completes the third and final Summer Camp of No.5 (McGill Univ.) BA/S. It is felt that all three Summer Camps were a success and that the trainees obtained a very good idea of RCAF. Station life whilst on this station. Once more, at the expense of repetition, it is felt that the success of these Summer Camps is due largely to the co-operation of the personnel of R.C.A.F Station, Rockcliffe. The unit wishes to xxx take this opportunity of offering their thanks. | |
| | Jun | | This camp left Ottawa on the 740 train and arrived in Montreal at 1100 hours. In the afternoon a pay parade was held and all their clothing on loan withdrawn. | |
