Dear Senator Meighen:

March 2nd / 1937

I notice by today's newspapers reference to a number of questions recently put on the Order Paper at Queen's Park, and one of them asks for information about the action against you and Mr. Maguire re the Hyde heard some months ago, and as to the costs of the defendants, which means your 'good self' I presume, and your costs of defence.

It occurred to me when reading that item,

MEIGHEN PAPERS, Series 5 (M.G. 26, I, Volume 206)
