OFFICE OF INDIAN AGENT

Kenora, Ontario,
September 19, 1936.

EX'D.

(Handwritten initials)
Assistant Deputy & Secretary,
Department of Indian Affairs,
Ottawa, Canada.

Dear Sir:

Replying to your letter #3-129B. T.9, I have just returned after being away for two months. My clerk, Mr. Meikle, has had a nervous breakdown and the office work is much upset.

I cannot lay my hands on your letter of the 25th of August, but believe it refers to the balance of cash distribution for Treaty #9. I understand the pay lists have been sent in and the balance forwarded to the representative of the treasury. If your letter does not refer to this matter please let me know and I will go into it further.

Your obedient servant,

Bank Edwards

Indian Agent.
