

harrowed summer-fallow.
 and cut the hay on the place.
 Mr Bohn then summoned us to court for stealing hay. Mr Ryan being moved to Picaput did not come and act for us but advised us to get a local solicitor in Broadview. Mr Thom is losing the case with a fine of $200 and court fees which amounted to a little over $16. Mr Bohn is now cutting crop and we are still on the place. As we have no money to carry the case further we are writing to you for advice as if we have to get off the place we have nothing to go off with as we have had a many poor living all the years we have been on here. If you would oblige us by looking into it and letting us know what best be done. I am Yours Truly Mr James McRobbie.
