OTTAWA, 20th March, 1906-

Sir-

I beg to inform you that an application has been made to the Department on behalf of the owner of Lots 26, 27, 28 and 29 Queen Street North, Manitowaning, for remission of the interest on the arrears of purchase money and I have to ask you to be good enough to examine these Lots and report whether they are of inferior value, as has been represented to the Department, giving full description of the Lots and stating whether you would recommend the granting of application made and the grounds upon which you would base same.

Your obedient servant

Francis Pease
Deputy Superintendent General
of Indian Affairs.

C. L. D. Sims, Esq.,
