

A CHRONOLOGY OF MRS. GASKELL'S LIFE AND WORKS

Elizabeth Cleghorn Stevenson, born in Lindsey Row, Chelsea, September 29	1810
Removed when six weeks old to Knutsford in Cheshire
At School at Stratford-on-Avon	1810
Lost her only brother, John Stevenson, at sea	1825
Death of her Father, William Stevenson	1827
Married the Rev. William Gaskell, Minister of Cross Street Chapel, Manchester, August 30	1829
Resided at Dover Street, Manchester	1832
" " Rumford Street, Manchester	1832-42
" " 84 Plymouth Grove, Manchester	1842-50
A Poem in Blackwood's Magazine written in conjunc- tion with her husband	1850-65
Contributed a Letter to Howitt's Visits upon Clopton Hall, Warwickshire	1837
Published Mary Barton , 2 vols.	1838
" The Moorland Cottage	1848
" Ruth	1850
" Cranford	1853
" North and South , 2 vols.	1853
" Lizzie Leigh, and other Tales	1855
" Libbie Marsh's Three Eras	1855
" Life of Charlotte Brontë	1855
" Mabel Vaughan , by the author of The Lampighter , edited by arrangement with the author by Mrs. Gaskell	1857
" Round the Sofa , 2 vols.	1859
" My Lady Ludlow, and Other Tales	1859
" Right at Last, and Other Tales	1860
" Garibaldi at Caprera , by Colonel Vecchj. Translated from the Italian, with Pre- face by Mrs. Gaskell	1862
" Sylvia's Lovers , 3 vols.	1863