

|            |  |          |
|------------|--|----------|
| .....200   | Invitations for 1920 Convention                              |          |
|            | Cities Extending.....  | 127, 228 |
|            | Referred to Executive Committee.....                         | 229      |
|            | Invocation, Rev. Dr. F. E. Powell.....                       | 8        |
| ..... 64   | Letters Received   |          |
| ..... 71   | George S. Watson.....  | 31       |
| ..... 72   | Fire Marshal of New York.....                                | 31       |
|            | James R. Young.....  | 127      |
| 132, 135   | National Board, How Can It Assist the State Fire Marshals    |          |
| .....204   | in Their Work.   |          |
| .....204   | Address by W. E. Mallalieu.....                              | 158      |
|            | Discussion by John G. Gamber.....                            | 168      |
| .....136   | Nitro-Cellulose Moving Picture Films and Pyroxylin Com-      |          |
| .....142   | pounds, The Fire Hazard of. What Should Be Our               |          |
|            | Attitude Toward Them?  |          |
| .....143   | Address by George W. Booth.....                              | 171      |
| .....149   | Officers   |          |
| .....150   | For 1919-1920 .....  | 2        |
| ..... 45   | Election of .....  | 230      |
|            | Pep in Perpetual Progress                                    |          |
|            | Address by Walter B. Bell.....                               | 191      |
| ..... 93   | President's Address, T. Alfred Fleming.....                  | 21       |
| .....102   | Program of Convention.....                                   | 3        |
| ..... 83   | Regrets Over Inability to Attend                             |          |
| ..... 91   | John Connolly .....  | 28       |
| ..... 92   | See Also Letters and Telegrams.....                          | 31, 127  |
|            | Resolutions  |          |
| ..... 45   | Sympathy Over Illness of Guests.....                         | 115      |
| ..... 50   | Report of Committee on.....                                  | 225      |
| ..... 52   | Response to Address of Welcome.....                          | 14       |
|            | Roster of Active and Associate Members.....                  | 236      |
| .....169   | Round Table Discussion                                       |          |
| uate?..197 | Are Present Methods of Shutting Off Gas in Emergencies       |          |
| ade?..198  | Adequate? .....  | 197      |
|            | Should Provision for Automatic Operation of Gas Shut-Offs    |          |
| ..... 54   | be Made?.....  | 198      |
| ..... 58   | Should Fire and Accident Prevention Day be Separated?.....   | 200      |
| ..... 60   | How Can Special Fire Department Deputies be Secured and      |          |
| ..... 63   | Developed? .....   | 204      |
| .....229   | Is Paid Advertising Practical for the Fire Marshal?.....     | 210      |
|            | Methods of Controlling Electrolysis.....                     | 213      |
|            | Advisability of Written Applications for Fire Insurance..... | 214      |
| .....181   | Exits From Circus Tents in Emergencies.....                  | 220      |
| .....185   | Rural Hazards—How Shall They be Eliminated?                  |          |
| .....190   | Address by H. L. Reade.....                                  | 103      |
|            | Discussion by H. H. Friedley.....                            | 116      |
| .....151   | Discussion by J. A. Tracy.....                               | 117      |
|            | Secretary-Treasurer, Report of John G. Gamber.....           | 29       |