

since the promulgation of the Code, up to January, 1880. By Thos. McGord, formerly Secretary to the Codification Commission, and now one of the Justices of the Superior Court of the Province of Quebec. Price, $3.

"Not only an interesting study to the intelligent citizen, but a positive aid and guide to persons in many circumstances and transactions of life."—Quebec Chronicle.

"A small, neat and convenient volume with a brief and succinct preface relating to the Code. As a useful pocket manual of intelligible law, this volume has, and unfortunately can have as yet, no rival in England and not many in the English Colonies."—London Saturday Review.

"The new edition has the additional value of carefully prepared notes, in which Judge McGord succinctly indicates such provisions of law, or judicial decisions, as bear upon any of the articles of the Code, and explains at the same time in what manner the article is affected. The typography and binding are unsurpassed specimens of Canadian workmanship. We can heartily recommend any person to purchase a copy of this useful little book."—Quebec Chronicle.

A Manual of the Practice and Procedure in the Several Courts having Civil Jurisdiction in the Province of Quebec. Containing the Code of Civil Procedure of Lower Canada, with the Amendments thereto made since its promulgation, the Authorities as Reported by the Commissioners and References to Subsequent Decisions. Also, the Rules of Practice of the Said Several Courts and Tables of the Tariffs of Fees, &c., payable on all proceedings, with various other useful matter and a General Index. By Ivan Witherspoon, M.A., LL.B., Advocate. Price $3.00.

Canada on the Pacific, being an account of a Journey from Edmonton to the Pacific by the Peace River Valley, and of a Winter Voyage along the Western Coast of the Dominion. By Charles Horetzky, Montreal. $1.00.

This book was published in 1874, but it contains a great deal of information bearing on the Pacific Railway routes, the result of the personal observation of the writer.

The Loyalists of America and their Times. From 1620 to 1816. By Egerton Ryerson, D.D., LL.D., Chief Superintendent of Education for Upper Canada from 1844 to 1876. In two volumes. Second Edition. Imperial 8vo, pp. 517 and 489. $5.00.

Only one side of the History of American Independence has as yet been written. In this valuable work are the materials for the other.

Ville-Marie, or, Sketches of Montreal, Past and Present. By Alfred Sandham, author of "Coins, Tokens and Medals of Canada." Life member of the Numismatic and Antiquarian Society of Montreal, and corresponding member of the American Numismatic and Archaeological Society of New York. With numerous engravings of Churches and Public Buildings, Street Views, Antiquities, Maps, Costumes, &c., &c. $2.00.

This is not a recent work. It is the only one of its kind now in print. The remainder of the edition is very small.
