FREDERICTON,
the Capital,
ST JOHN.

the chief commercial city
(Population over 50,000.)

Railways traverse every county in the Province.

New Brunswick is about the size of Scotland without the islands. It possesses a climate of exceptional healthfulness, and there is no country in the world that is more free from epidemic diseases or where people live to a greater age.

Vegetation advances at a rate of growth unknown in Europe.

The Province is not a dead level like the prairie regions, neither is it mountainous, but full of hills and rich valleys.

Population of the Province is about 350,000
