

Bingham, James, sawyer
 Herriman, J., blacksmith
 LANG, WALLACE, P. M.

Milne, Alexander, merchant
 Ramsay, Arthur, prop. saw mill
 Whiting, John, prop. saw mill

MIDDLEPORT (Tuscarora P. O.)

A village and station of the Buffalo and Lake Erie Railway, situated on lot number 7, Brantford St., township of Onondaga, and on the Grand River; twelve miles from Brantford, six from Caledonia, and twenty-five from Port Dover. The village was laid out by Solomon Hager. George Yuell was the first P. M. The village contains two churches, Episcopal and Methodist.

Daily mails. Stages to Onondaga. Population, 200.

Bartram, Thomas, farmer
 Bartram, Wm., farmer
 Boyce, Jacob, shingle maker
 Brant, James, blacksmith
 BROWN, WM., carriage and waggon maker and blacksmith.
 (See adv.)
 Butler, John, butcher
 Deagle, David, merchant
 DEE, ROBERT H., M.D.
 Dennis, David, merchant
 Fields, James, prop. Farmer's
 Hotel
 Hager, Charles, farmer

Hager, James, farmer
 McLAREN, ROBERT, baker, confectioner, and grocer.
 Mathieson, Robert, cabinet maker
 MYNARD, HENRY, P. M., merchant
 PATTERSON, JOHN, prop. Middleport Hotel. (See adv.)
 Patton, E. F., M.D., surgeon
 Rowen, Michael, blacksmith
 Smith, Peter, interpreter
 WILSON, HENRY, prop. sawmill. (See adv.)

HENRY MYNARD,
GENERAL MERCHANT,
 DEALER IN
DRY GOODS, GROCERIES, CROCKERY,
CLOTHING, &C.,
 MIDDLEPORT, C. W.