FISKE O'HARA DION O'DARE

With GILLIE MACHREE in the famous dramatic Irish play coming to the Grand week of Aug, 31.

Fiske O'Hara, the clever young Irish singer, with his happy infec-tious laugh, his beautiful tenor voice and his handsome face will begin his annual engagement at the Grand on Monday Aug. 31, in "Dion O'Dare", the latest roman-tic Irish comedy drama under the management of Chas. E. Blaney. The piece is the joint effort of a well known newspaper man of Newark and Mr. Blaney. It is purely Irish in locale and all the characters are historical. It relates to the adventures of a young Irish boy, who rises from the humble position of a poor boy, and becomes the most famous sculptor of Ireland. There is a sweet love story running through the piece of an Irish girl whore birth is of a higher degree than O'Dare's but all ends well and Dion comes to Dublin as the honored guest of the Lieutenant General and finally wins his Irish sweetheart. Mr. O'-Hara has composed several new songs this summer especially for this production. The play is strictly a costume play and takes place in the early part of the 18th century. The stage settings are magnificent and all in all a very enyable evening will be spent by hose who witness "Dion O'Dare"

The usual matinees will be given. A song that promises to be as popular as "Sunbeam of my Heart' which was sung by Fiske O'Hara last season, is his new waltz song called "Nora McNamara." As the title shows it is thoroughly an Irish song, and when Mr O'Hara in the character of "Dion O'Dare" sings it to his sweetheart in the pale oorlight it makes one of the prettiest stage pictures seen in many years. Mr. O'Hara has composed several other new songs for his new A New Book by a New Writer that will make the Author famous
