Stumps The Easy, Practical Way

Clear your land the KIRSTIN way—the quick, easy, sensible, economical way—the way that has proven practical under all conditions. One man handles and operates the KIRSTIN—NO HORSES REQUIRED. And yet it is easier for a man to use the KIRSTIN—it is LESS and EASIER work than with any other Puller or by any other method. The improved double leverage KIRSTIN, the new short lever model, stands the extreme tests of the very hardest stump pulling. The KIRSTIN's wonderful compound leverage principle makes any man master of the toughest stumps anywhere. In addition to its practically unlimited power, the KIRSTIN

Changes Speed While Pulling a Stump
No other stump puller at any price contains a similar device. With most machines you keep pulling at the same rate of speed even after the stump has broken loose and the hard pull is over. This is a big waste of time that the KIRSTIN Multiple Speed-Changing feature entirely overcomes.

Why the KIRSTIN is the simplest, most practical, most efficient land clearing device ever invented. Lowest first cost of operation. It weighs much less than any other, is a great deal stronger, and is covered by the railway expense of the delegates from the local to the central convention. The expenses of delegates from locals near Toronto do not generally equal the fees they pay to the central. The surplus is used to offset the loss incurred in paying the expenses of delegates from locals living a long distance from the central.

Proposed Constitutional Amendment by United Farmers

The danger Mr. Reynolds sees as auditor is that should more delegates be appointed from a distance than from near Toronto, the expenses might be so great as to practically swamp the funds of the central association. There are various ways in which this difficulty might be offset, such as by putting forth a special effort to organize locals near Toronto and to have them well represented at the convention, or by increasing the membership fees paid by all locals. This amendment will need to be considered with considerable care. Last year the present arrangement worked out satisfactorily. It is found that it is likely to work out satisfactorily this year it is possible that it may not be necessary to make this amendment at this time although the danger foreseen by Mr. Reynolds is one which the locals should keep in mind.

What Constitutes Membership

Mr. E. C. Drury will move that the constitution be amended so as to more clearly define what constitutes membership in the central organization is an individual member of the local or is the local itself. At present section 12 of the constitution reads:

"It shall be the duty of the secretary treasurer * * * to keep correct minutes * * * as well as a complete and correct membership roll showing date of joining and an account of each member's dues, showing when and paid, and every thing necessary to keep a record of each member's standing."

Hitherto the only record that has been kept has been that of the local organizations, when they joined the central and paid 50c per member thereto. A record has been kept also of the number of local paid by each local at this determines the number of delegates the locals can send to the central convention. As it is possible that some may expect from the way the constitution reads that the locals are expected to send the names and post office addresses of each of their members to the central and that the central should keep a complete list of all the affiliated members to all the branches, and as this is not being done, Mr. Drury's idea is that the constitution should be amended so as to make it clear that this is not necessary. To send such a list adds to the duties of the local secretaries and to the secretary of the central. This list is constantly changing also which means that the work is continuous in character. On the other hand, there may be good reasons why it is desirable that the central should know who all its members are. Whether or not it will be necessary for this change to be made it will be for the convention to decide.

United Farmers in Convention

THE Second Annual Convention of the United Farmers of Ontario, along with the Second Annual Shareholders' Meeting of the United Farmers of Canada Company, Limited, will be held in St. James' Parish Hall, 65 Church St., Toronto, beginning Wednesday Feb. 2, 1916.

Mr. J. J. Morrison has given notice that he intends to move that the laws be so amended that the retiring directors shall not be eligible for reelection for one year after their term has expired. Mr. E. C. Drury will move that we consider the advisability of the reconstructing of the management of the corporation in our by-laws. It also has some situation, nolds of Soling grants on Wednesdays to educational sions.
