PIGS IN CORN.

A's pigs went to B's barn and destroyed B's corn. The barn was a mile from where B was living, and old, with doors and boards off; gates open; nothing to stop pigs. B put in bill of damages: 15 loads corn at $1.50 per load. How much will A have to pay, or will he pay any? OLD SUBSCRIBER.

Ontario.

Ans.—Assuming that pigs are not allowed—by by-law—to run at large, A is liable to B in damages. If the parties cannot agree upon the amount, it can be ascertained by an arbitration, or by suit in the Division Court. It cannot be estimated from the particulars above given alone.

GOSSIP.

The annual Provincial pure-bred cattle sale will be held in the Winter Fair Building, Guelph, on March 6th. Make your entries promptly with J. M. Duff, Secretary Guelph Fat-stock Club. Entries close January 10th.

His Majesty King George's usual annual sale of fat show stock was held at Slough, England, December 5th, and brought fairly good prices. A Short-horn steer sold for $350, a Devon steer for $220, a Hereford steer for $190. The champion hog at the Smithfield, suitable for bacon purposes (a Berkshire), sold for $150, the highest price for a porker.

W. J. McCallum, of the firm of McCallum Bros., Brampton, Ont., and Brandon, Man., reports the sale of Clydesdales as good, they having sold all their recent importation. W. J. McCallum is now in the Old Country making selections, where his address is Queen's Hotel, Wigton, Cumberland, England, and will arrive with a new importation on or about February 10th. See advertisement later.

THE TORONTO SHORTHORN SALE.

The annual consignment auction sale of high-class Shorthorns at the Union Stock-yards, Toronto, is advertised in this issue to take place January 7th and 8th, 1912, following the annual meeting of the Dominion Shorthorn-breeders' Association, when 100 head of choice animals, 25 young bulls and 75 young cows and heifers of superior type, quality and breeding, selected from seven prominent Ontario herds, will be offered, including representatives of many of the most desirable families of the breed. Catalogues may be had by writing Robert Miller, Stouffville, Ont., sale manager.

Chas. Currie, of Morriston, Ont., a few miles south of Guelph, whose reputation as a breeder of high-class Tamworth swine is an enviable one, is just now offering some exceptional values in Shorthorn heifers and one seven-months-old bull, out of his heavy milking tribe, a number of which are good for from 50 to 60 lbs. a day for a considerable time after freshening. He is overstocked, and, consequently, is willing to give the buyer a big cut in prices. He also has on hand some particularly nice things in young Tamworth boars and sows, which he is offering at close prices, bred from his prize-winning stock. Parties interested should make a note of it.
