It is rumored in Canada, that Mr. Bridges, who is at present in England, has resigned his office as Managing Director of the Grand On Mondi Trunk Railway, The reason for this step was said to be the fact of Mr. Brydges dissent-ing from a recent order of the English Board of Directors to redece the staff of the railway ten per cent. The report, however, is only rumored, and is contradicted in the most positive manner by the Ottawa Times. The paper says the English shareholders could not hear
