The Only Road to Victory

A STINGY Christian was listening to a charity sermon. He was nearly deaf, and was accustomed to sit facing the congregation, right under the pulpit, with his ear trumpet directed upward toward the preacher. The sermon moved him considerably. At one time he said to himself: "I'll give $10." Again he said: "I'll give $15." At the close of the appeal he was very much moved and thought he would give $50.

Now the boxes were passed. As they came along his charity began to ooze out. He came down from fifty to twenty, to ten, to five, to zero. He concluded that he would not give anything.

"Yet," said he, "this won't do—I am in a bad fix. This covetousness will be my ruin." The boxes were getting nearer and nearer. The crisis was upon him. What should he do?

The box was now under his chin—all the congregation were looking. He had been holding his pocketbook in his hand during this soliloquy, which was half audible, though in his deafness he did not know that he was heard. In the agony of the final moment he took his pocketbook and laid it in the box, saying to himself as he did it: "Now squirm, old natur'!"

Here is a key to the problem of covetousness. Old natur' must go under. It will take great giving to put stinginess down. A few experiments of putting in the whole pocketbook may, by and by, get the heart into the charity box, and then the cure is reached. All honour to the deaf old gentleman. He did a magnificent thing for himself, and gave an example worth imitating, besides pointing a paragraph for the students of human nature.—Good Words.

IS IT NOTHING TO YOU?

Is it nothing to you, O ye Christians,
That millions of beings to-day
In the heathen darkness of China
Are rapidly passing away?
They have never heard the story
Of the loving Lord who saves,
And fourteen hundred every hour
Are sinking to Christless graves!

Is it nothing to you, O ye Christians,
That in India's far-away land
There are thousands of people pleading
For the touch of the Saviour's hand?
They are groping and trying to find Him,
And, although He is ready to save,
Eight hundred precious souls each hour
Sink to a Christless grave!

Is it nothing to you, O ye Christians,
That Africa walks by night?
That Christians at home deny them
The blessed Gospel light?
The cry goes up in the morning
From a heart-broken race of slaves,
And seven hundred every hour
Sink into Christless graves!

Is it nothing to you, O ye Christians,
Will ye pass by and say,
"It is nothing, we cannot aid them"?
You can give, or go, or pray.
You can save your soul from blood-guiltiness;
For in lands you never trod
The heathen are dying every day,
And dying without God.

Is it nothing to you, O ye Christians,
Dare ye say ye have naught to do?
All over the world they wait for the light,
And is it nothing to you?—Selected.
