There is a strong contrast between the tailor-made garment and the picked-off-the-counter kind. The contrast is not only in the fit—it is in everything—the fabric, the linings—the cut, style, finishing, everything that counts in a suit of clothes or an overcoat. Now which is it your ambition to be, well dressed or arrayed in a slovenly manner? If the former give us a trial order.

Let us only be patient; and let God our Father teach His own lesson in His own way. Let us try to learn it well and learn it quickly; but do not let us fancy that he will ring the school bell and send us to play before our lesson is learned.—Kingsley.
