During the first six months of his vicariate at Braintree, Essex, the Rev. Thomas Eddleston has established a record. He has knocked at every door in the parish, and has had a chat with every householder.

Most generous presentations have been made to the Bishop of Thetford, Mrs. and Miss Bowers, and the Rev. G. S. Hand (Chaplain), by parishioners and friends on the occasion of their leaving North Creak for Norwich.

The important vicarage of St. Mark's, Sheffield, vacant by the resignation of the Bishop of Sheffield, has been accepted by the Rev. A. B. Burney, Vicar of Kimberworth, Rotherham. Mr. Burney is one of "Vaughan's doves." At Kimberworth he has done a notable work in grappling with the rapid growth of population. He is keen on the Church Men's Society, and is the Ruridecanal Secretary of the Church Missionary Society. Last year his name was submitted for a Colonial Bishopric, but at Mr. Burney's desire it was withdrawn.

Hale and hearty still, Mrs. Ann Speed, who lives in the Lincolnshire village of Heighington, celebrated her hundred and first birthday on Tuesday. Mrs. Speed is one of the most familiar figures at Lincoln market, which she visits every Friday in almost all weather. With unflinching regularity she is to be seen trudging cheerfully along the streets of Lincoln, with her butter basket on her arm, and there are many who would greatly miss her cheerful, familiar figure.

The Right Rev. Dr. Edward Atwill, Bishop of Kansas City, died on January 24th, in his 71st year. He was consecrated to the episcopate on October 14th, 1890.

The parishoners of Christ Church, Hackensack, N.J., have decided to place a handsome pulpit in the church as a thankoffering for the forty years' faithful ministry of the Rev. Dr. W. W. Holley, now the rector emeritus.

Mrs. T. H. Foulds has given to the church of the Messiah, Glens Falls, N.Y., a large and commodious rectory in memory of her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Finch.

By the filing of the will of the late Mrs. Mary L. Hall, an aged widow, who resided in Racine, Wis., it is learned that her estate, estimated of the value of $75,000, has nearly all been left to the Church and charity. After several bequests aggregating about fifteen thousand dollars, the residue is to be divided—one-half to St. Luke's Church, Racine, one-quarter to Racine College, and one-quarter to St. John's Church, Burlington, Wis., where the testator formerly resided, her husband having been president of a bank at that place.
