Over 140 Attend Devine Service Yesterday—Many From the Sister Brigades From Bell Island and Heart's Content Join Camp—Lads Are Enjoying Themselves—Are Much Pleased With Outing

The Church Lads' Brigade, who are camped out at the Orphanage grounds, Topsail, are enjoying their stay in camp. They made a record march from the City to the camping grounds, doing it in about four hours—the distance being over 13 miles. They have been joined by detachments from Bell Island and Heart's Content and mustered yesterday 140 strong all told. They attended Divine Service yesterday, the officiating clergymen being Revs. Canon Netten and Canon Smith. Canon Netten preached a very appropriate sermon in the forenoon, and in the evening the sermon was preached by the venerable Canon Smith, whose subject was the "Prophet Daniel be Faithful." All were very much impressed by the Rev. Gentleman's stirring words. The Brigade have had many distinguished visitors, including His Excellency the Governor and Lady Davidson, Sir Edgar Bowring, Sir Joseph Outerbridge, Mayor Gosling and many others. We wish the lads a pleasant and instructive outing.

Mr. Richard Roach
We regret to chronicle the death of a well-known and respected resident of Topsail in the person of Mr. Richard Roach, which took place at 7 o'clock yesterday morning. Mr. Roach, who married a Miss Allen, daughter of the late Wm. Allen, who kept the well known hotel at that place. Mr. Roach carried on the blacksmith trade there for over 30 years. His first wife died about two years ago, and a couple of years later he married Miss Flannery, of Topsail, who also predeceased him about four years ago. Mr. Roach was well and favorably known in the city, being jovial and big hearted, always hospitable and noted for the outspoken and manly stand he always took in public matters. He leaves three sons to mourn a good father. We extend our sympathy.

'Twas Ever Thus

Mr. John Peddle, a well-known citizen who has given a son to fight the Empire's cause, feels aggrieved over the treatment which he received at the public meeting on Friday. Mr. Peddle and another citizen who have also sent two sons to the front, one of whom gave his life in the big push of July 1st, and whose hearing powers were somewhat impaired and naturally desirous of listening to the speakers, took up their position near the steps of the Court House, when Major Montgomerie's name was mentioned and went over to the police and ordered them to move them away. Mr. Peddle asked Montgomerie what authority he had for such an action, at what he understood to be a public meeting, and was told known hotel at that place. Mr. Roach carried on the blacksmith trade there for over 30 years. His first wife died about two years ago, and a couple of years later he married Miss Flannery, of Topsail, who also predeceased him about four years ago. Mr. Roach was well and favorably known in the city, being jovial and big hearted, always hospitable and noted for the outspoken and manly stand he always took in public matters. Private Jensen At Grand Falls

Private Jensen spoke to a large audience at Grand Falls on Saturday night. Magistrate Fitzgerald occupied the chair. A very favorable impression was created in the minds of all present by Mr. Jensen's lecture. Private Jensen is certainly doing valuable work in his recruiting campaign and deserves the best his country can give him. A vote of thanks was proposed by Rev. Mr. Loder and seconded by Rev. Mr. Jones, and heartily endorsed by the audience. The pleasure of the evening was enhanced by Messdames Belmont and Little, Miss Steele and Messrs. Christian and O'Mara, who rendered vocal and instrumental music. Private Jensen lectures at Bishop Falls and Botwood during the coming week.

Wm. R. Tilley of Kelligrews Discharged From Active Service as Medically Unfit After Doing Duty in the North Sea—Compelled to Work With Pick and Shovel on Bell Island

The matter of providing in some way for those who have received injuries while fighting for King and Country and who are incapacitated from performing their usual work, will from now on demand the attention of the authorities. At least in cases where men are no longer fit for active service and having received their discharge and are obliged to go to earn their living, we think some recognition should be given.

Our attention has been called to the case of Wm. R. Tilley, of Kelligrews. This lad joined the Regiment in 1914 but being under age his parents secured his discharge. He then volunteered in the Navy and was accepted, and in due time was sent with others to take up the perilous duties of mine sweeping in the North Sea, where their ship struck a mine and went down, carrying many of her crew down with her. However, our young hero escaped with some wounds, including a broken nose and severe injury to his back. He was later sent home and when he recuperated he luckily offered his service again to do for the Regiment, but on being examined he was turned down as being medically unfit. He then went on board the H. M. S. Briton to re-enlist but the doctor informed him that his injuries were of such a nature as to render him unfit for further naval duties. This lad is at present employed with the D. I. & S. Steel Co., on Bell Island, as an ordinary laborer and finds it very distressing to perform the work required of him owing to his weakened condition due to the effect of his wounds. This is surely a case where some preference should be shown this brave lad, who received wounds in the service of his country which makes it impossible for him to endure the roughest side of life. Tilley has sacrificed health and the vigor of young manhood at his country's call, and we commend his and other cases to the authorities and employers of labour. Surely if a distinctive badge is merited it is by those, who, like Tilley, have done their bit and returned and again take their place in the industrial life of the Colony. We trust that the mining companies and other employers will take such cases into consideration and, if possible, furnish suitable work of a not too laborious nature at least.

Warm Welcome is Given Them

Thousands of Citizens Were at Railway Depot to Greet Our Soldier Lads Who Returned on Saturday—Acting Premier Bennett Delivers Short Address, as Did Sir Joseph Outerbridge

By the express Saturday the following soldiers returned from the front: Lieuts. Snow, Edgar, Duley, Knight, Smith and Thomson. Those officers will help to train the soldiers now in barracks. Non-Coms and Officers as follows: Sgt. Regimental Major Pavler, Q.M.S. Oke, Sergeant Edwards and Noonan, Corporals Stenlake and Mars, Lance Corporals Hussey and Crossman, Privates Gidney, D.C.M. Hollett, Penny, Bradbury, Bowring, Thompson, Stickey, Kent, Bursley, O'Dea, Evans, Harris and Jesso. Nearly all those took part in the Gallipoli campaign. Penny, Jesso, Bursley, Hussey, O'Dea, Kent and Stockley are returned as unfit for active service, while the others are recuperating after having suffered from wounds received in action.

Upon detraining at the Station these heroes received a reception such as befitted the occasion. Thousands of people were assembled to bid them welcome, among the number being the Lord Bishop of Newfoundland, His Lordship Bishop Power, and many clergy of all denominations and other prominent citizens. The volunteers formed a square in front of the Station under command of Major Montgomery and Capt. O'Grady.

When the train steamed in cheers were called for by Hon. M. P. Cashin, which were responded to by the thousands present. Many acts of personal greeting took place as the heroes detrained. The acting premier, Hon. J. R. Bennett, then addressed them, offering them the whole-souled welcome of their country. Sir Joseph Outerbridge also addressed them on behalf of the Patriotic Association. They then entered motor cars, which were waiting, and was conveyed to Government House, where His Excellency, Lieut. Col. Davidson, inspected the men and in a very suitable address thanked them on behalf of the country for the part they played in the Empire's fight. Cheers were called for and given heartily. They were then treated to cigars and refreshments by the Ladies Patriotic Association, after which they were dismissed to visit friends.
