I. cadets and Mohawk cadets, held their annual spring church parade yesterday afternoon to Brant Avenue Methodist Church, where they were addressed by the pastor, Rev. A. E. Lavell, B.A., who took for his subject "Can War be Right."

The Dutch and the Turks believed that some things were more important than their lives. Mr. Lavell went on to show the value of human life and property and that there were very few things worth the sacrifice of life and property, but that some princed that some princes are the conditions. A field of twenty-four turned out for the mixed foursomes.

At 3.30 The regiment, Cadets and available seat in the church was occupied and many were turned away.

The speaker sain as a Christian HAVE BEEN AN nister, he was liable in speaking to oldiers to contradict all his other reaching. Having been born in Kingston, where there is much military activity and having spent many, New years there, war had a strange fascination for him. Since then he had visited many battlefields in Canada, She Suffered for Four Years, and the Europe, Asia and Africa.

"Is war right or can it be right?" asked the speaker. In explaining war, Mr. Lavell said that war was the armed forces of one nation coming against the armed forces of another, giving as illustrations the battle of Waterloo, the siege of Jerusalem and the bombardment of Beyrut in Syria. These battles, explained the speaker, meant the killing and maiming of hundreds of thousands of people and asked the question, "Could any war be right?"
