INHERITING LETTERS FROM OUR STATE OF CORRESPONDENTS.

A Budget of News and Gossip—Personal Intelligence—A Little of Every-thing Well Mixed up.

DELA.

MONDAY, JUNE 23.—On Saturday last the I. L. baseball team went to Fort to fulfill a challenge issued some few days ago. The boys came home tonight, but attracted their de-light to a game of pool. Our village has good material for a fine baseball team. Now, that is no idle statement, and if some of our citizens who lack the patriotic sentiment will make a point to witness the return match on our own ground, which is soon to take place, I advise them if they do not encourage by their peals or by words, the local team, which has been too often the case around here.

WARWICKTON.

MONDAY, JUNE 23.—The new blacksmith shop is now completed and the new blacksmith, Mr. Joseph Stacey, formerly of Elbe Mills, is determined to give satisfaction to all who may favor him with their patronage. Well, "he is able to give satisfaction" are the first words which would suggest themselves to a stranger upon entering the shop.

ELBE MILLS.

MONDAY, JUNE 23.—More than the usual amount of buckwheat is being sown in this vicinity.

FRONT OF YONGE.

WESTPORT.

SATURDAY, JUNE 21.—The By-law for the granting of another bonus of $10,000 to extend the B. W. railway to Westport was defeated here on Tuesday by a majority of over 100. No doubt the electors of North Cross will be very grateful for the amount of railway gas from Newboro, which expired in favor of Mr. Herd.
