Of a Very High Order—The Various
Programs for the Day.

Christmastide will be fittingly observed in all the Maple City sanctuaries to-morrow, and on Monday by special services of sacred song. An appropriate and delightful sequel to the pastor's theme on the Birth of the Saviour, will be the choral chants and carols with which the services will be brightened and edified. Chatham is a city of churches and the Christmas services will all greet a large attendance of devout and earnest worshippers. The Planet presents its readers to-day with the excellent musical something that will be of practical utility to the recipient, handsome in design and of the sort that will be sure of genuine appreciation. We have especially for this season's trade, an excellent variety of Leather Upholstered Easy Chairs, Couches and Rockers, deep-seated and comfortable, trimmed in the latest style, with the best of springs and material used in their construction. Our show rooms are filled with the things that have that little touch of origi-

"Why Smith left home," will be explained at the Grand on Monday night.
The people who will illustrate the farce are Adeline Mann, Lucille Walker, Aristed Ringsted, Veta Henderson, Nellie Lindroth, Florence Evans, Walter B. Woodall, Joseph Bailey, Frank M. Ball, Leander de Cordova, Bert Dorris, Thomas M. Jarvis, Harlow West and James Corbin. The story is one of domestic infelicity with a newly married couple as the central figures and a troupe of aunts, uncles, brothers, sisters and sisters-in-law, who persist in visiting them, as excellent comedians. A glib and somewhat dictatorial cook, an old gallant, and a German count, who makes love to Smith's wife under the impression that she is his sister, complete the roster of the principal characters. The farce has sharp, whip-like dialogue and no vulgarity. It was one bright success of the London season. In the afternoon the attraction will be What Happened to Jones.

No one has ever seen such bargains as are being offered at Stone the Hatter's bankrupt sale. Think of this before making your Christmas purchases. Stone the Hatter, Garner

Corticelli Sewing Silk is all silk; it is full size letter A; it is smooth, strong and free from knots or flaws.

These are reasons
why ladies who want stitching to last as long as the fabric, prefer it to all other sewing silks.

Knowing ones like it better than linen or cotton because it lasts longer and goes further —and does not fade.

Full length 50 or 100 yard spools.
Costs just one tenth of a cent a yard.
