The Acadian

DEVOTED TO THE INTERESTS OF WOLFVILLE AND EASTERN KINGS

Vol. XLI. No. 40.

eger le dis

WOLFVILLE, NOVA SCOTIA, FRIDAY, July 21, 1922

$2.00, payable in advance

DISTRICT NEWS

GREENWICH

Miss Joyce Harvey left. Monday morning, July 10th, for Windsor, where she visited relatives until the next day when she joined three of her class mates of the twelveth grade of Kentville Acad-emy last year and proceeded to Truro and is now taking the summer course a the Normal College there.

the Normal College there,
Mr. Merry, of Montreal, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Charlotte Bishop.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Forsythe and Murray recently motored to North Kingston, taking with them to her home there Mrs. Lovitt Bishop, sister of Mr. For-sythe, who has been their guest for several number from here enjoyed the day last Thursday at Kingsport, going with the large picnic of the Baptist Church at Port Williams. Over twenty of the children of this place attend Sunday School over there

Dr. Miller and Dr. Chute, of Canning paid a professional visit at one of our homes last week. We understand Dr. homes last week. We understand Dr. Chute, who is a graduate of Acadia College, graduated from Dalhousie Medical College with the highest honors, being a thorough student through both Colleges. We wish for him the best of success in his professional work and he is needed in his chosen locality. Also we wish the same, to the new doctor in Grand Pre, Dr. Gordon Smith, who is needed there, and in surrounding country.

Mr. Cochrane, of Vancouver, who spent a month visiting relatives in Nova Scotia was a recent guest for a short time at the home of his uncle, Mr. Fraser.

Saturday four of her little grand-daughters in Wolfville can be plainly heard in this place, its clear tones reminding us of the old College bell.

CANARD NOTES

Mr. Stanley Eaton, son of Mr. Freeman Eaton, who was married in Toronto, Thursday last, will reside in Lower Baptist Church Sunday last.

Miss Dorothy Rand, of Upper Canard, been spending a week with her cousin, Miss Florence Eaton.

Miss Margaret Rand is camping at is spending a week at Halls Harbour.

Miss Burnaby and her friend, Miss
Foch, of Boston, motored to Lower

Ottawa Conservatory, gave the church

Ottawa Conservatory, gave the church

Ottawa Conservatory of the two home team by the score of 7 to 3 in an will meet at Lower Canard Church on Thursday of this week. Mrs. F. H. Beals and Mrs. Martell, of Wolfville will address the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy McDonald, of Edward Island,

The Bazaar at Canning was a great uccess. A number from Canard attended, Miss Lucy Rand, of Boston, is visiting her sister Alice in Upper Canard.

Mrs. Windatte, of Regina, is spend the summer with her mother, Mrs. Chas. McFadden.

Miss Sproual, of Halifax, ha been visiting Mrs. Howard Burbidge,

Dr. Zella Clarke is visiting her sister Mrs. A. J. Prosser in Upper Canard

AVONPORT

Mrs. Pudsey, of Greenwich, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Wm. A. Holmes, Sr., returned to her home

Mr. and Mrs. Waite and family motore from Halifax on Sunday and were guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Parker Miss Winifred Courtney and cousin Miss Miller, of Shubenacadie, are the guests of the former's sister, Mrs. Clarence

GENERAL LUDENDORFF

Who is said to have engineered the Mon archist plot in Germany.

DR. MACDONALD GIVES SPLENDID SERMON

The Wolfville Baptist Church enjoyed on Sunday two splendid sermons by the pastor, Rev. J. H. MacDonald, D. D. In the morning Dr. MacDonald preached Mrs. Lewis Forsythe entertained last on the difference one's outlook makes as aturday four of her little grand-daughters illustrated by Jesus and John the Baptist. Edith and Laura Forsythe, from "the John was a recluse He was never seen Ridge", Alice Rand and little Greta at a wedding nor in the market place. Forsythe of Wolfville.

This was no mere whim on his part.

With deep regret the many friends in this place and vicinity heard of the death of Mrs. Eliza Wellener, of Aylesford, into the corruption, injustice and into the corruption. last week, funeral being held on Friday humanity of his day. He believed the afternoon. Mrs. Wellener was a former resident here and has been seriously ill at the home of her son Blake in Aylesford. resident here and has been seriously ill at the home of her son Blake in Aylesford.

Mrs. Lohnes, of New Ross, has been visiting her sister Mrs. Emma Harvey for several days.

Both ladies spent the week-end with relatives and friends that the sins and sorrows are the seriously ill did not the sins and sorrows. than John did into the sins and sorrows of man-kind. He felt more deeply runner. John beheld a hopeless world.
Jesus looked out on a redeemable world. So it was he lived with radiant face among his fellows and sent forth his disciples to shine as lights in the darkness and to be as salt to preserve the world from corruption. Some of us still have John's outlook on life. We stand aloof from the world's affairs-its politics and its pleasures-Canard.

Dr. Poole preached in the Upper Canard as though these relationships were in capable of betterment. This is not the religion Jesus exemplified and commended is spending a week at Aberdeen Beach. He paid a high tribute to John's character Miss Myrtle Dodge, of Berwick, has and fidelity and declared that "the least By this he no doubt meant that the man at Middleton on Thursday of last week, who shares in the work of the Kingand family.

Mr. Beverly Prosser, of Upper Canard, was home from Yarmouth for the week-end.

Gon to God, and who does not run away all-stars battled for twelve innings to a 1—1 tie.

On the same day Kentville won from Windsor in a regular league fixture.

The game which was played at Windsor. Mrs. Chas. McFadden, of Canard, lives apart and leaves a needy world to was a poor exhibition and the score was a spending a week at Halls Harbour.

Canard. They arrived on Friday last and will spend the summer with Miss Burnaby's sister, Mrs. Walter H. Eaton.

The Warson's Mission and Ald Society.

Ottawa Conservatory, gave the church is church being the home team by the score of 7 to 3 in an eight inning game. A home run by Fergus and William and Solos, "Arise, Shine For Thy Light Has guson, Kentville, with a man on base, Come" by MacDermid, and "How guson, Kentville, with a man on base, The Women's Missionery Aid Society Beautiful Upon the Mountains" by was a feature of the game.

B. Hughes, left on Monday last for two and Mrs. Percy McDonald, of weeks vacation which will be spent in have been on a trip to Prince Halifax, Amherst and Parrsboro. Her place at the station is being filled by Mr. Harry Hoyt, of Windsor.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smith are at "Crar with Mrs. Smith's parents, Dr. croft" nd Mrs. B. C. Borden.

Miss Kimba Lockhart spent the week end in Wolfville guest of her friend Miss Mildred Eye.

GRAND PRE

Mrs. J. W. McClelland entertaine number of friends at a dance on Tuesday vening of last week.

Maude Olding, of New Glasgow returned home last week after spending a few days here, guest of Mrs. J. W

Mrs. T. Norman Goudge and family of Halifax, are spending the summer

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Kennedy and fan the recently sold their property here, noved to Hortonville last week.

Misses Mary and Doris Eaton were Misses Mary and Doris Eaton were Messrs. Imirie and "Jock" Borden pent the week end at Evangeline Beach with friends.

Miss Minnie Brooks, D. A. R. Agent, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Susie G. W. Whitman.

WOLFVILLE WINS FROM KENTVILLE

In Interesting Game of Cricket

After being defeated by the Kentville Club in five games the local cricketers turned the tables on their opponents on Saturday last, and won by the score of 52 to 47. The game, which was played on the College campus, was closely contested and the outcome was in doubt right up to the finish right up to the finish.

Kentville went to bat first and scored 47 runs, of which number Ferguson in secured 23, before being bowled out by Robinson. The bowling of Robinson and Spittall was very effective and the others fell in quick order. J. F. Herbin and service a constitution of the service of the se made a sensational catch and retired Miller. Copeland and Lavelle also made splendid catches.

The first two players on the home team quickly succumbed to the bowling of Walker. Then Bauld and Spittall made a long stand and when they were retired the score was 34. Smith, Robinson and Lavelle fell without scoring and Wolfville's chances looked slim. Herbin Sr. added four more to the score. When Mckensen went to bat Wolfville needed nine runs to tie the score, but his wicket fell after his securing but seven. It was then up to Herbin Jr. and Copeland who both played splendidly and succeeded in securing seven runs between them, and enough to win the game. The local team were much elated 7 b clock. over their victory. The scoring was as follows: Kentville J. Miller, c Herbin, Sr., b Bauld.... Ferguson, b Robinson..... C. Sennett, b Spittall . . . Walker, c Lavelle, b Spittall.... Total....Wolfville Smith, c Bolton, b Walker..... Robinson, Sr., c Fosbery, b Miller.... Robinson, Sr., c Fosbery, b Miller.... 0 of Acadia College, then extended to A. F. Little, not out.... Lavelle, b Walker..... 0 the conference a hearty welcome from E. A. Poole, b Weatherbed Herbin Sr., b Doll.... Meckenson, b Doll Copeland, b Doll.....

Total......52 BASEBALL NOTES

One of the finest games of baseball ver witnessed in the Valley was played when Middleton and the South Boston All-Stars battled for twelve innings to

MISSIONARY WORKERS

Tenth Annual Conference Now in ion with Large Attendance

The Summer Missionary he past ten years, is now in session at with a large attendance of tes, who began to arrive on Tues m all parts of the Maritime Provand who are quartered at Acad

ev. H. C. Priest, of Toronto, who mer years has so ably conducted etings, is again on hand this He is the Canadian Secretary of Missionary Education Movement has been successfully conducting rences in these provinces for the ten years. Full of zeal and enthusfor the missionary cause of the thes of all denominations he ims that enthusiasm to all who come act with him. At this conference s ably assisted in the administrative work by Mrs. Priest, who is once more given a hearty welcome to Wolfville after an absence of some years.

Outstanding missionaries and church ers are present and lead classes each ning in the Seminary Chapel, while but the afternoons are free for recreation ist Church the latter being preceded by a ight service on the College lawn at

The opening of the conference on Taesday evening took the form of a "welcome" to the visiting delegates.

Mr. Priest in his own inimitable way conducted the meeting. The singing was hearty and spontaneous, with Mrs.

Campbell of Campbellton, N. B., at C. L. Smith, c and b Malcolm the piano. Mr. Priest gave as the keynote of the conference, Col. 1, 8, "That W. Smith, c and b Donat ... in all things He might have the pre-emiice." The master must have the pre-we go back to our every day work D. Evans, b Mounce. lesus only." He denoted the purpose

by conference in five words—knowledge

R. G. Evans, b Mounce.

Mounce.

R. G. Evans, b Weatherbed an eloquent address Prof. Spidle, A. J. Echlin, b Mounce 4 the University. He welcomed this con- F. Caunter, b Anslow..... 7 ference, especially because the mission-of Truro, who leads the

(Continued on page eight)

"I have all the tralia needs it she can have it.....

W. H. BIGGAR, K. C.

Vice President and General Counse of the Grand Trunk Railway System who died suddenly in Montreal.

WINDSOR CRICKET PLAYERS DEFEAT BRIDGETOWN

A regular league game of cricket was Windsor J Weatherbed, c Little, b Evans.... ock.

Opening of the conference on K. Tremain, b Donat.....

A Mounce, c Echlin, b Evans..... Byes gave a few words of greeting: Prof.

The game on Wednesday was a thriller besides his widow, four sons, Clifford E. Line, of Mt. Allison University, who from start to finish the Methodists finally who owns an adjoining farm; Wm. L.

junior workers. It was a bright informal gathering and the prospects are splendid (Continued on page eight)

Another feature of the big picnic was Bank at Windsor, departing last year, and his brother Frederick some years before. Girls in a game of indoor baseball.

> and will be presented next Sunday. The dates for Camp are as follows: a universal favorite. Girl Guides, Aug 7 to 14th Boy Scouts,

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mrs. Charles E. Kolb of 31 Garrison Hallfax, were in attendance. avenue was hostess at a 1 o'clock luncheon this afternoon, followed by bridge, at to the sorrowing family. which time the announcement of the aping marriage of her second daughter. Miss Helen Kolb, to Joseph Ernest Barss of Nova Scotia was made. The guest list included a few of the intimate friends of Eliza A. Wellener, widow of the late John Miss Helen Kolb, to Joseph Ernest Barss nut cups was the surprise of the afternoon made known. In the bottom of each was written the name of the young people and the date August 9. Mr. Barss is a student in the medical department of the University of Michigan and the acquaintance of the young and the acquaintance of the young the the University of Michigan and the acquaintance of the young people was made while Miss Kolb was also a student at the university."

The Bulletin Sydney (N. S. W.)

OBITUARY

DEATH OF L. O. NEILY

The late Lambert O. Neily, whose death occured at Aylesford on Monday of last week, was a man well known and highly esteemed in this county. He was 73 years of age and a native of Aylesford where he spent a long and useful life. A man of sterling integrity he placed principles first and shaped the activities of his life in the direction of what he believed to be right.

As founder and senior member of the firm of L. O. Neily & Co., Mr. Neily was favorably known in business circles. Twelve years ago ill-health necessitated his retirement but his keen interest in community affairs continued and he was always ready to assist in any good work.

He was an active and consistant member of thefBaptist church and an ardent worker in the cause of tempera faithful member of the Kings County Temperance Alliance, those who were associated with him in that useful organization, a number of whom attended the funeral, found him a helper in all that made for the uplifting of mankind.

Mr. Neily was twice married, his first wife being a Miss Bowlby, of Aylesford, by which marriage two daughters, played at Bridgetown on Thursday of Mrs. Cross, of Marlboro, Mass., and Miss last week between the Bridgetown and Hattie M. Neily, a nurse in Massachusetts I in the evening meetings of a most Windsor clubs. The match was won by survive him. His second wife was Lucy, tractive character are held in the Bap-Windsor, the scoring being as follows: of Cornwallis, who with one son, Ernest, 6 of Aylesford, and daughter Evelyn, also 15 remain to mourn their loss. The funeral took place on Thursday 17 afternoon and was very largely attended.

16 A brief service was held at the home 3 after which the casket covered with 7 beautiful floral tributes was carried to the church followed by a long procession 6 of neighbors and friends.

The service was conducted by the pastor, Rev. G. W. Schurman and the 1 sermon was preached by Rev. G. P. Raymond, a former pastor, at the request 105 of Mr. Neily, and was a thoughtful and

The service at the grave was with 8 Masonic honors, the deceased having 0 been for long an honored member and of Harmony Lodge

DEATH OF C. H. WRIGHT, Sr.

We regret to chronicle the death of one of our former Kings County resi-.43 dents and father of our fellow townsman,

C. H. Wright, Jr. In preparation for the Play-off at the when a young man where he purchased Mords of welcome from the town of Wolfville were extended to the conference by Mayor Sutherland in a brief and witty speech which drew much applause from the delegates. The various tendence from the delegates. The various the present of the present of the present of the present of the late Leander Eaton, who survives him. Some thirty-two years ago he bought applause from the delegates. The various the Presbyterians, score 13 to 12. Tueshas since resided. For a year he has since resided. leaders of the classes were then introduced by Mr. Priest. In response the following the Baptists score 17 to 14. The game on Wednesday was a thriller besides his widow, four sons, Clifford E., leads the Bible Study Classes; Rev. winning, score 13 to 12. They therefore Manager of Bank at St. Peters; Chas. H., S. C. Freeman, Baptist missionary from add another cup to their collection, which Jr., of Wolfville; Rupert W., Manager India, who teaches the class on "India"; will be presented as soon as it arrives. of Bank at Springhill; daughters Minnie Rev. Geo. Rackham Methodist missionary elect to West China, who teaches the class on "China"; Mrs. L. W. Parker, Presbyterians, captained by Trueman Wright was the last of his family, his brother Rupert. C., Manager of Royal

Annapolis County in his death, loses ne of its most en by the former class is now being engraved all lose a courteous, kind gentleman, whose unfailing good humor made him

The funeral from his late residence on Aug 14th to 21st. Special trip to Chester (Methodist Patrol) Aug 22nd. Cost of Rackham, pastor of his church, assisted Camp for Girls and Boys will be $4.00 by the Revcrends John Hockin, W. R. Those intending to go must Turner and and W. N. Hutchins. Vocal notify Mrs. or Mr Brown before August selections were given by Mr. Rackham and the whole service was comforting and appropriate. Besides the immediate family, Mrs. C. E. Ells, of Canning; Mr. and Mrs. C. C. H. Eaton, Mr. and The following clipping from the Battle Mrs. Leander Eaton, Hugh Eaton and Creek (Mich.) "Enquirer" will be read Robt O. Harris, of Canard; Mr. and with interest by Mr. Barss' many friends. Mrs. H. Stairs and Miss Fanny Eaton, ACADIAN extends congratulations, of Wolfville; and C. C. Blackadder, of

We extend our heartfelt sympathy

Mrs. Eliza Wellener

Miss Helen. Orchids, sweetpeas and green- Wellener, formerly of Greenwich, after ery formed attractive decoration. Not an illness of four months. The deceased until the guests had emptied the dainty was 71 years of age and a member of nut cups was the surprise of the afternoon | the Baptist Church. She leaves to mourn