Contents of the British as follows: music was discoursed by Stewart's Cor- department. net Band, which did much to enliven the proceedings, although the position of the bandsmen was almost too near the dome to enable them to do justice to themselves in their first public appearance. Among the gentlemen skaters the Full Moons from Chatham, with their drill and songs, created some amusement. Mercury, King Henry the Eighth, and the Eliza bethan Page attracted the most attention Among the Ladies, Christmas Tree. (which was an excellent representation) and Valentine, (also well gotten up) were the most admired and deservedly the considering the spectators, seemed to enjoy themselves most heartily. The Judges were Messrs. R. B. Haddow, Newcastle; J. L. Stewart, Chatham; J. P. Burchill, Nelson. The prizes awarded were two nickel plated acme skates. Mr. Ambrose; of the Bank of Mortreal, Chatham, who represented Mercury, obtained the gentleman's prize; The following is a complete list of the Mortreal attractive enough to awaken more than ordinary interest among the spectators. The Herald say:
