PARIS, Jan. 28.—Repatriation of German prisoners may bring about a critical situation in the labor market in some parts of France, according to an Amiens despatch. Work of restoration of devastated districts will be retarded, it is said and farmers, who have been employing large numbers of Germans, fear they will not be able to sow a large acreage this spring. Efforts have been made to replace the Germans, who have reports state that but few applicants for work have made their appearance.

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

IT'S GRANDMOTHER'S RECIPE
TO BRING BACK COLOR AND LUSTRE TO HAIR.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns grey or streaked, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients at a small cost, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the grey hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous.

The Methodist National Campaign
IN CONNECTION WITH THE INTER-CHURCH FORWARD MOVEMENT—FOUR MILLION FOR METHODISTS.

The Methodist National Campaign was initiated by the General Conference, organized by the co-operating departments in connection with the Inter-Church Forward Movement, and approved by all the annual conferences and by the General Conference Special Committee.

St. Catharines District of the Methodist Church has an objective of $51,000, while the three city churches are planning to raise $17,000.

Rev. Dr. Chowan says: "This is no time for a timid church. It's zero hour, and the Church must go over the top and dig in on advanced ground or be driven back by the forces of the world."

Objectives.
The definite objectives of the Methodist National Campaign are:
200,000 intercessors.
300,000 personal workers.
100,000 Christian stewards.
100,000 new members of the church.
100,000 new members of the Sunday School.
50,000 new members of the Young Peoples Societies.
5,000 Volunteers for life service.
$4,000,000 of a special offering in addition to the usual current revenues and connexional funds of the Church.

Its Aims Are:
1. Lifting the church up to a larger spiritual vision and broader Christian service.
2. Deepening the Prayer life of all.
3. Promoting Evangelism—persistent, personal and general.
4. Enlisting all the working forces of the Church in definite Christian service.
5. Stimulating religious education in home, church, school and college.
6. Teaching and practising the principles of Christian stewardship.
7. Securing definite commitments to some specific form of life-service.

Financial Objectives.
A special offering of $4,000,000 for purposes of equipment and extension as authorized by the General Conference, October, 1918.
This combined objective is for the following special subjects:
Missions: Equipment and Extension fund, $1,500,000.
Superannuation: Epdowment fund, $1,500,000.
Education Society: College debts and new buildings, $750,000.
Special fund for current revenues, $250,000.
After careful organization and education the campaign will culminate in an every-person canvass during the week of February, 8-15, 1920. Subscriptions to the special objectives of the Methodist National Campaign will be in addition to the annual subscriptions to the Current Connexional funds, and are payable as follows:
50 per cent. cash.
20 per cent. June 15, 1920.
20 per cent. September 15, 1920.
20 per cent. December 15, 1920.
20 per cent. March 15, 1921.
The watchword for the whole church is "Forward" and the command from Divine and human leadership is "Advance all along the line."

Urges Election Of H. H. Asquith

LONDON, Jan. 28.—Former Premier Asquith arrived at Paris yesterday to open a political campaign. The contest will last three weeks.

While opinion is clearly divided over running a Unionist candidate against him, there are signs of a split among the democratic section, J.M. Biggar, the Labor candidate, apparently not holding strong enough views to suit the extreme Paisley Socialists, who threaten to bring out another man.

J. A. Maclean, the Unionist candidate, who unsuccessfully contested the constituency in 1906, is well known locally, being a member of the town council.

The Daily Telegraph, which has consistently supported the Coalition government, and generally in pre-war days advocated Unionist principles, frankly expresses regret that local Unionists should oppose Mr. Asquith, declaring that all men of any judgment recognize him as a Parliamentarian of the first rank and the leader of a considerable party with definite and distinct opinions on most questions.

"We hold, therefore," continues the Telegraph, "that his return to the House of Commons is in the national interest, and is to be desired and should be welcomed even by those who generally have been and are likely to remain his opponents."
The Telegraph's advertisement columns, curiously enough, contain an advertisement declaring that the lawyer-politician is the enemy of today, and appealing for funds to fight "Mr. Wait and See Asquith."

Coming Events Cast Their Shadows Before

Not since the pre-Confederation days has the political life of Canada been surcharged with so much uncertainty.

Great events in Canadian politics are about to take place. The reorganizing and rehabilitating of great political parties is in progress. New leaders are appearing.

The order is changing. All things are becoming new.

THE next two years will be a momentous period in the political life of the country. Reconstruction is a greater task than Confederation.

How will you take your place in the affairs of the nation? What opinions will you form? How will you cast your ballot intelligently if you do not keep in touch and inform yourself on the great questions of the day by reading a daily newspaper national in viewpoint and international in scope?

This is the task and responsibility of The Globe—to give all the news, progressive views, and space for opposing opinions. Such was the threefold purpose of George Brown. His ideal was a Great Family Newspaper with a place in every home. That is The Globe's ideal to-day.

It is not a party organ, but a medium for the development of public opinion and an advocate of reform. It is the servant of the people from whose needs it draws its inspiration.

To be informed of the progress of events, you should avail yourself of The Globe's great news gathering organization. For an analysis of these developments, and clear, sober thought upon them, read its editorial discussions from day to day. They are written by close students of economics, politics, industry, commerce, social reform and religion.

And further, what The Globe has been in the past is a sure guarantee of what it will be in the future. The personality and ambitions of its founder ever dominate the activities of its publishers.

Therefore, nothing will be left undone to make The Globe the newspaper that George Brown would have it be and to earn a place for it in every Canadian home.
