

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS

ARMED BREWERY, late general passenger agent of the International Railway, died at Montreal on Sunday evening.

THE JAMES BROWN of Shelburne, had this week's growth of whiskers and hair on sale at the market Friday.

A Montreal law student is under arrest for stealing law books. He will have to make use of the law he stole to escape the law he is arrested for violating.

In response to a requisition signed by a number of citizens, Mayor Haywood has consented to resign and to be a candidate for the mayoralty at the coming civic election.

A brick of gold weighing 67 oz 3 dwt 7 grains, valued at $1,115 has been discovered at Ansonby. It was the yield of eighty-odd tons of quartz from the Cochrane Hill gold mine, Quebec County.

Services entered the vestry of St. Paul's Church here during divine service, Sunday night, and stole an overcoat and pair of Astrachan gaiters. The police are trying to discover the thief.

We are pleased to hear that Messrs. Bear Bros. received more coupons from the readers of the Herald than from any other paper. This proves two things—that Bear Bros. advertisements are read, and that the Herald's readers know how to appreciate a chance to get bargains.

LOOK OUT FOR THEM—A well-known order merchant has been in Vancouver to buy up Japanese and Chinese "cattle" metal silver at 90 cents on the dollar. He is going to ship them to Toronto, Montreal, Winnipeg and the lower provinces, where his agents will attempt to pass them for the face value.

On Thursday morning, R. Toombs' store, Montreal, was found to have been entered and a quantity of goods taken therefrom. Several runners and other staff amounting to $15 or $20 were taken, including $1 cent change which had been left in the till. The police were notified and are on the lookout for the thieves.

We regret to learn that owing to continued ill health Mr. Ronald J. Macdonald, who is promoting his ecclesiastical studies at the Propaganda College, Rome, is compelled to return home. He is expected to arrive about Easter. The young gentleman is a son of Mr. Angus Macdonald, of North Bedouque.

PROBABLY the oldest living person today in Canada resides on Bonaventure Island, N. B. The person referred to is Mrs. Mary Ann, daughter of the late James Macdonald. Mrs. Macdonald, who is yet able to move about her home without assistance, has seen 100 winters. This is certainly an extraordinary old age for a person to live.

Mrs. HENRY J. JENNINGS, a brother of Dr. J. T. Jennings of North River, was drowned at Queenstown, Ireland, on the 11th inst., while endeavoring to save the life of a young lady who had fallen into the water. His body was recovered about an hour afterwards. Mr. Jennings was well known to many persons in Charlottetown and was highly respected.

MR. W. O. SCURMANN, Summerside agent for the B. & N. Railway, has been selected by the directors of the Quebec & Atlantic Railway Company to be their agent for the purchase of a steamer for their St. Lawrence route to take the place of the Minnetonka. The vessel will be about 200 feet in length and will draw fourteen feet of water.

Monday morning, Mr. John O'Neil, printer, who lives on Boston Street, broke into the cellar of his home and broke his leg. Mr. O'Neil did not notice that the cellar hatch was open when he entered the kitchen, and fell in. Dr. Warburton was called in and had him removed to the P. E. Island Hospital where he is doing as well as can be expected under the circumstances.

We have received a letter from Mr. James Malone, of Buffalo, N. Y., in which he requests us to give him some information concerning the whereabouts of his father's relatives. His father's name was James Malone; he was a seaman and is dead. If any of our readers know anything of Mr. Malone's relatives, we would be obliged to them if they would communicate with this office.

SATURDAY morning about one o'clock a fire was discovered in the grocery store of Mr. Peter Doyle on Queen St. The fire was in the ceiling between the first and second floors. It burned furiously for a time but the flames were quickly on hand and extinguished. The fire did little damage but the water and smoke destroyed considerable. We understand Mr. Doyle had $200 insurance on his stock.

It is not what we say, but what we do, that draws the crowds to our store.

We think it only polite to thank you the readers of the Herald for your liberal patronage to us last year. We would like to see you again and we are glad to hear that you are doing all right. We will make it our business to give you the best of our goods at the lowest prices.

Our Program

For this year is exactly the same as for the year past, namely

RELIABLE GOODS, AND POPULAR PRICES

We intend to sell goods cheap, and sell good goods the same time. Our specialties are as before.

DRESS GOODS, MANTLES, MILLINERY, AND FUR GOODS.

We have secured the largest quantity of these goods on P. E. Island and wish to sell them at the lowest prices.

Just News

We are preparing for the immense stock of New Goods to arrive in April.

We are very cheap and are selling goods very cheap to the public.

NOTICE

It is hereby given that I have this day taken into partnership with me, Mr. J. B. Johnson, of Ottawa, and in future we will do business under the name of Johnson & Johnson. I take this opportunity to thank you for the liberal patronage you have shown me in the past, and solicit a continuance of the same for the new firm.

A. S. JOHNSON.

Charlottetown, January 17, 1894.

Work on the new breakwater at Point de Chene, N. B., is soon to be commenced. The contract has been given to Mr. Henry Smith, of Ottawa, for $38,000. It is expected that the construction will be completed in six or eight months.

A summary of the city and faithful records of the city was assigned to Mr. Bernard McQuillan, keeper of the City Clerk's office, and the records of the city were assigned to Mr. Bernard McQuillan, keeper of the City Clerk's office, and the records of the city were assigned to Mr. Bernard McQuillan, keeper of the City Clerk's office.

We are informed that the case of Went to which we recently gave publicity was not as bad as pictured. The only article needed was coal; and this it was impossible to procure, either from within the house or from friends without, owing to the sickness of all parties and to the storm. The information was furnished in this instance is from one in a position to know, and must surely be correct.

The trial of the Cogan, connected with the Cochrane shooting case, was concluded at St. John's, Wednesday evening. The jury consisted of Messrs. Cogan and his youngest son, Daniel, and George Syvan, the son who fired the shot, and on the fifth count of shooting to do bodily harm. Judge Wells sentenced him for two years in the penitentiary. He was kept up on three charges of entering and stealing, was given six years in the penitentiary, two for each crime.

NEARLY a year ago, a man from the United States followed a fugitive to Northumberland, N. B., and had him arrested for horse stealing. Judge Wilkins allowed him to be imprisoned in the county jail before being taken to the States. He was there for some time, and the matter is now before the court.

The British Post Office may be slow, but it is sure. It has just delivered some newspapers that were posted about thirty years ago, and the seal in the post office is still in the ink of the original date.

MR. ARTHUR P. EDWARDS, accountant for Mr. Charles Lyons of this city, was united in marriage to Miss Marion McQuillan, daughter of Mr. Neil McQuillan of Pictou, in St. Dunast's Cathedral Monday morning. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. D. B. Reid. The bride was Miss Sarah Edmonds and the groom was supported by Mr. J. J. Johnson. The bride was given away by her brother, Capt. John A. McDonald. The presents were numerous and valuable.

A snow storm commenced about 7 o'clock Tuesday morning and continued till about noon when it turned to rain. The storm was so fierce that the trains were hung up with the exception of the South and Cape's special, which came through in the evening. No mails came as the caps were not yet commenced, and raged with great fury until about 11 o'clock. Consequently all trains had to be tied up until the storm spent itself.

MR. ANDREW, of Prince of Wales College, is engaged soliciting information respecting former students of the College, so as to be in a position to append to the College Calendar a list of them with the localities to which they have gone. The names of those who are now in the United States are as follows: Mr. J. B. Johnson, of Ottawa; Mr. J. B. Johnson, of Ottawa; Mr. J. B. Johnson, of Ottawa.

The stockholders of the World's Fair in Charlottetown will be glad to hear that the committee of the fair have been successful in their efforts to secure the fair. The fair will be held in Charlottetown, and the committee have been successful in their efforts to secure the fair.

MR. W. W. BEAN, of the firm of Bean & Co., of this city, was united in marriage to Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

The bride was Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

The bride was Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

The bride was Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

The bride was Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

The bride was Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

The bride was Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

The bride was Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

The bride was Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

The bride was Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

The bride was Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

The bride was Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

The bride was Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

The bride was Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

The bride was Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

NOTICE

It is hereby given that I have this day taken into partnership with me, Mr. J. B. Johnson, of Ottawa, and in future we will do business under the name of Johnson & Johnson. I take this opportunity to thank you for the liberal patronage you have shown me in the past, and solicit a continuance of the same for the new firm.

A. S. JOHNSON.

Charlottetown, January 17, 1894.

Work on the new breakwater at Point de Chene, N. B., is soon to be commenced. The contract has been given to Mr. Henry Smith, of Ottawa, for $38,000. It is expected that the construction will be completed in six or eight months.

A summary of the city and faithful records of the city was assigned to Mr. Bernard McQuillan, keeper of the City Clerk's office, and the records of the city were assigned to Mr. Bernard McQuillan, keeper of the City Clerk's office, and the records of the city were assigned to Mr. Bernard McQuillan, keeper of the City Clerk's office.

We are informed that the case of Went to which we recently gave publicity was not as bad as pictured. The only article needed was coal; and this it was impossible to procure, either from within the house or from friends without, owing to the sickness of all parties and to the storm. The information was furnished in this instance is from one in a position to know, and must surely be correct.

The trial of the Cogan, connected with the Cochrane shooting case, was concluded at St. John's, Wednesday evening. The jury consisted of Messrs. Cogan and his youngest son, Daniel, and George Syvan, the son who fired the shot, and on the fifth count of shooting to do bodily harm. Judge Wells sentenced him for two years in the penitentiary. He was kept up on three charges of entering and stealing, was given six years in the penitentiary, two for each crime.

NEARLY a year ago, a man from the United States followed a fugitive to Northumberland, N. B., and had him arrested for horse stealing. Judge Wilkins allowed him to be imprisoned in the county jail before being taken to the States. He was there for some time, and the matter is now before the court.

The British Post Office may be slow, but it is sure. It has just delivered some newspapers that were posted about thirty years ago, and the seal in the post office is still in the ink of the original date.

MR. ARTHUR P. EDWARDS, accountant for Mr. Charles Lyons of this city, was united in marriage to Miss Marion McQuillan, daughter of Mr. Neil McQuillan of Pictou, in St. Dunast's Cathedral Monday morning. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. D. B. Reid. The bride was Miss Sarah Edmonds and the groom was supported by Mr. J. J. Johnson. The bride was given away by her brother, Capt. John A. McDonald. The presents were numerous and valuable.

A snow storm commenced about 7 o'clock Tuesday morning and continued till about noon when it turned to rain. The storm was so fierce that the trains were hung up with the exception of the South and Cape's special, which came through in the evening. No mails came as the caps were not yet commenced, and raged with great fury until about 11 o'clock. Consequently all trains had to be tied up until the storm spent itself.

MR. ANDREW, of Prince of Wales College, is engaged soliciting information respecting former students of the College, so as to be in a position to append to the College Calendar a list of them with the localities to which they have gone. The names of those who are now in the United States are as follows: Mr. J. B. Johnson, of Ottawa; Mr. J. B. Johnson, of Ottawa; Mr. J. B. Johnson, of Ottawa.

The stockholders of the World's Fair in Charlottetown will be glad to hear that the committee of the fair have been successful in their efforts to secure the fair. The fair will be held in Charlottetown, and the committee have been successful in their efforts to secure the fair.

MR. W. W. BEAN, of the firm of Bean & Co., of this city, was united in marriage to Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

The bride was Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

The bride was Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

The bride was Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

The bride was Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

The bride was Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

The bride was Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

The bride was Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

The bride was Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

The bride was Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

The bride was Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

The bride was Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

The bride was Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

The bride was Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

The bride was Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

NOTICE

It is hereby given that I have this day taken into partnership with me, Mr. J. B. Johnson, of Ottawa, and in future we will do business under the name of Johnson & Johnson. I take this opportunity to thank you for the liberal patronage you have shown me in the past, and solicit a continuance of the same for the new firm.

A. S. JOHNSON.

Charlottetown, January 17, 1894.

Work on the new breakwater at Point de Chene, N. B., is soon to be commenced. The contract has been given to Mr. Henry Smith, of Ottawa, for $38,000. It is expected that the construction will be completed in six or eight months.

A summary of the city and faithful records of the city was assigned to Mr. Bernard McQuillan, keeper of the City Clerk's office, and the records of the city were assigned to Mr. Bernard McQuillan, keeper of the City Clerk's office, and the records of the city were assigned to Mr. Bernard McQuillan, keeper of the City Clerk's office.

We are informed that the case of Went to which we recently gave publicity was not as bad as pictured. The only article needed was coal; and this it was impossible to procure, either from within the house or from friends without, owing to the sickness of all parties and to the storm. The information was furnished in this instance is from one in a position to know, and must surely be correct.

The trial of the Cogan, connected with the Cochrane shooting case, was concluded at St. John's, Wednesday evening. The jury consisted of Messrs. Cogan and his youngest son, Daniel, and George Syvan, the son who fired the shot, and on the fifth count of shooting to do bodily harm. Judge Wells sentenced him for two years in the penitentiary. He was kept up on three charges of entering and stealing, was given six years in the penitentiary, two for each crime.

NEARLY a year ago, a man from the United States followed a fugitive to Northumberland, N. B., and had him arrested for horse stealing. Judge Wilkins allowed him to be imprisoned in the county jail before being taken to the States. He was there for some time, and the matter is now before the court.

The British Post Office may be slow, but it is sure. It has just delivered some newspapers that were posted about thirty years ago, and the seal in the post office is still in the ink of the original date.

MR. ARTHUR P. EDWARDS, accountant for Mr. Charles Lyons of this city, was united in marriage to Miss Marion McQuillan, daughter of Mr. Neil McQuillan of Pictou, in St. Dunast's Cathedral Monday morning. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. D. B. Reid. The bride was Miss Sarah Edmonds and the groom was supported by Mr. J. J. Johnson. The bride was given away by her brother, Capt. John A. McDonald. The presents were numerous and valuable.

A snow storm commenced about 7 o'clock Tuesday morning and continued till about noon when it turned to rain. The storm was so fierce that the trains were hung up with the exception of the South and Cape's special, which came through in the evening. No mails came as the caps were not yet commenced, and raged with great fury until about 11 o'clock. Consequently all trains had to be tied up until the storm spent itself.

MR. ANDREW, of Prince of Wales College, is engaged soliciting information respecting former students of the College, so as to be in a position to append to the College Calendar a list of them with the localities to which they have gone. The names of those who are now in the United States are as follows: Mr. J. B. Johnson, of Ottawa; Mr. J. B. Johnson, of Ottawa; Mr. J. B. Johnson, of Ottawa.

The stockholders of the World's Fair in Charlottetown will be glad to hear that the committee of the fair have been successful in their efforts to secure the fair. The fair will be held in Charlottetown, and the committee have been successful in their efforts to secure the fair.

MR. W. W. BEAN, of the firm of Bean & Co., of this city, was united in marriage to Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

The bride was Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

The bride was Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

The bride was Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

The bride was Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

The bride was Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

The bride was Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

The bride was Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

The bride was Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

The bride was Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

The bride was Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

The bride was Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

The bride was Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

The bride was Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

The bride was Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard, pastor of the Hampton church, assisted by Rev. William Tweedy, father of the bride, and by Rev. Thomas Deland.

NOTICE

It is hereby given that I have this day taken into partnership with me, Mr. J. B. Johnson, of Ottawa, and in future we will do business under the name of Johnson & Johnson. I take this opportunity to thank you for the liberal patronage you have shown me in the past, and solicit a continuance of the same for the new firm.

A. S. JOHNSON.

Charlottetown, January 17, 1894.

Work on the new breakwater at Point de Chene, N. B., is soon to be commenced. The contract has been given to Mr. Henry Smith, of Ottawa, for $38,000. It is expected that the construction will be completed in six or eight months.

A summary of the city and faithful records of the city was assigned to Mr. Bernard McQuillan, keeper of the City Clerk's office, and the records of the city were assigned to Mr. Bernard McQuillan, keeper of the City Clerk's office, and the records of the city were assigned to Mr. Bernard McQuillan, keeper of the City Clerk's office.

We are informed that the case of Went to which we recently gave publicity was not as bad as pictured. The only article needed was coal; and this it was impossible to procure, either from within the house or from friends without, owing to the sickness of all parties and to the storm. The information was furnished in this instance is from one in a position to know, and must surely be correct.

The trial of the Cogan, connected with the Cochrane shooting case, was concluded at St. John's, Wednesday evening. The jury consisted of Messrs. Cogan and his youngest son, Daniel, and George Syvan, the son who fired the shot, and on the fifth count of shooting to do bodily harm. Judge Wells sentenced him for two years in the penitentiary. He was kept up on three charges of entering and stealing, was given six years in the penitentiary, two for each crime.

NEARLY a year ago, a man from the United States followed a fugitive to Northumberland, N. B., and had him arrested for horse stealing. Judge Wilkins allowed him to be imprisoned in the county jail before being taken to the States. He was there for some time, and the matter is now before the court.

The British Post Office may be slow, but it is sure. It has just delivered some newspapers that were posted about thirty years ago, and the seal in the post office is still in the ink of the original date.

MR. ARTHUR P. EDWARDS, accountant for Mr. Charles Lyons of this city, was united in marriage to Miss Marion McQuillan, daughter of Mr. Neil McQuillan of Pictou, in St. Dunast's Cathedral Monday morning. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. D. B. Reid. The bride was Miss Sarah Edmonds and the groom was supported by Mr. J. J. Johnson. The bride was given away by her brother, Capt. John A. McDonald. The presents were numerous and valuable.

A snow storm commenced about 7 o'clock Tuesday morning and continued till about noon when it turned to rain. The storm was so fierce that the trains were hung up with the exception of the South and Cape's special, which came through in the evening. No mails came as the caps were not yet commenced, and raged with great fury until about 11 o'clock. Consequently all trains had to be tied up until the storm spent itself.

MR. ANDREW, of Prince of Wales College, is engaged soliciting information respecting former students of the College, so as to be in a position to append to the College Calendar a list of them with the localities to which they have gone. The names of those who are now in the United States are as follows: Mr. J. B. Johnson, of Ottawa; Mr. J. B. Johnson, of Ottawa; Mr. J. B. Johnson, of Ottawa.

The stockholders of the World's Fair in Charlottetown will be glad to hear that the committee of the fair have been successful in their efforts to secure the fair. The fair will be held in Charlottetown, and the committee have been successful in their efforts to secure the fair.

MR. W. W. BEAN, of the firm of Bean & Co., of this city, was united in marriage to Miss Nettie Tweedy, daughter of Rev. William Tweedy, of Hampton, N. B., at that place at noon on Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Samuel Howard,