

Was Almost Drowned.

Man Dragged Overboard from Dock—So Long Under Water That Jiggers Were Used—Restored to Consciousness After Two Hours' Work.

Thos. Connors, one of the workmen at the floating dock, South Side, had a narrow escape from death yesterday afternoon. While the dock was sunk to take in a vessel, the man became entangled in one of the heavy ropes connected with the docks and was dragged overboard and went to bottom with it. Intense excitement prevailed, as he went in 18 feet of water, and not reappearing for five minutes, he was given up as lost. Jiggers were procured and the men were dragging the bottom for him when some of them pulled up on the rope and the unfortunate came up on it feet foremost. He was to all appearances lifeless, but foreman P. Murphy and others rolled him on a barrel and after getting the water out of him resorted to artificial respiration. After two hours of what appeared to be fruitless effort, it was noticed that the body was becoming warm and that there were evidences of respiration, and still continuing to work on him the man came to. He was then driven home and a doctor called, and was very ill last night. He had a narrow escape from drowning.

Policeman Dismissed.

Yesterday afternoon Constable Carnell, who is only a few months in the police force, arrested a drunk opposite the Post Office and tumbled him into a cab. The prisoner jumped out at the other side, when the officer becoming excited struck him and also kicked him, then permitting him to go away. When the man jumped from the cab he fell heavily and cut his head. Indignant citizens present denounced his conduct and Sgt. Savage took a report of the affair. A few days ago the officer gave notice of his resignation, but on getting the facts today J. G. Sullivan summarily dismissed him.

Broke His Leg.

While coming down over Buckmaster's field last night a resident of the higher levels tripped in a hole in the meadow and broke his left leg at the ankle. He was found lying on the ground crying with pain by a boy named Dooley, who ran to the cab stand, secured a cab and drove him home. A phone message from Mr. Jesse Whiteway's residence brought Dr. Cowperthwaite, who set the limb, after which Const. Nugent summoned the ambulance and he was taken to Hospital.

Left With Trout Fry.

Mr. M. Murray, warden of Murray's Pond hatchery, left here a few days ago for Carbonara bringing along a considerable quantity of rainbow trout fry. Mr. Murray placed them in charge of two residents, who had gone to the trouble of preparing ideal spots for their distribution. A communication recently received that the fry were progressing splendidly.

On Game Protection.

Mr. Joseph Pennell, Supervisor of Fishery Warden, has just completed an extensive trip to Pistolet Bay, around Cape Norman, for the Game and Inland Fisheries Board. He went from Bonne Bay to Pistolet Bay in a dory accompanied by one man, accomplishing this lonely journey in a fortnight. Mr. Pennell has visited every river on the whole of that part of the coast and is bringing back complete reports.

Tone and Quality

AT THE NICKEL.

The Nickel Theatre scored a distinct triumph last night with its unmistakably high-class programme of vocal, instrumental and pictorial selections, and from the immense throngs that attended and enthusiasm displayed, the higher plane of this entertainment has filled a long felt want. Indeed many who were present expressed surprise at the quality of the programme. The pictures were varied enough, dramatic enough, funny and spectacular enough to suit every taste, and the choice orchestral selections by Messrs. McCarthy and S. A. Duprez gave them excellent setting. Miss MacKenzie made her bow in Malloy's exquisite little writing, "We can't do without the men" from "The man from Cook's," a number that will be familiar to many who have followed the American successes. She sang it sweetly, with fine expression and clear voice, renewing her popularity and reputation. Mr. H. B. LeRoy was heard in "Au revoir, sweet Marie" and he, too, received unstinted applause. A new show will be presented to-night.

SERIOUS CHARGE.—A warrant was sworn out this morning for the arrest of a fisherman, belonging to Outer Cove, at the instance of a young woman of the same place. The charge preferred is a serious one. It is thought that the accused has skipped out of the country.

HANDSOME TROPHIES.—To-day in the windows of Mr. Chas. Ellis' tailoring establishment are exhibited three splendid cups for competition in Regatta Day. The Brigade and Society cups are massive and beautifully wrought and the swimming cup is also a perfect work of the silversmiths art. They were made at Meriden, Conn., and were imported by the Robinson Export Co.

PORT OF CALL.—Bonavista will be a port of call for the Sagona on her way to Labrador this trip.

VISITING CITY.—Col. Robinson, of the Robinson Export Co., arrived here on a visit to the city by the Florizel.

Broke Salmon Regulations.

FINED $10.00.

Mr. W. J. Walsh, of Placentia, was tried before Magistrate O'Reilly on Saturday last for breaking the salmon laws, viz., jiggering salmon in the Southeast Arm river. He was convicted and fined $10. Did he plead ignorance of the law?

The Police Court.

Two drunks were discharged. A drunk for the third time was fined $2.50 or 7 days.

A drunk and disorderly in his own house was ordered to be blacklisted on the complaint of his wife.

In the Central District Court several civil cases for debt were disposed of.

UNDER DISTINGUISHED PATRONAGE.

At Rossley's Star Theatre to-night there will be a grand benefit performance given in aid of the Marine Disaster Fund, and it is to be hoped that the people of St. John's will rally round and fill the theatre for so good a cause. The performance will be a high class one. Miss De Alberti, Miss Keegan, Mr. Goodridge, and several others have very kindly consented to appear. Then the Rossleys, Jack, Marie and Bonnie, will give their very best Scotch act, the Scotch tourists. They will give representations of English, Irish and Scotch characters. Then Mr. Percy Orth and Joe Burkhardt have got down a fine act for the occasion. There are many surprises in store for those who visit the Star Theatre to-night. Remember, you are assisting the widows and orphans, as the money taken in for this entertainment is to be turned over to the fund.

STORM APPROACHING.—Toronto advises at 11.20 this morning the hoisting of No. 2 storm signal, to give notice of a storm approaching from west and shifting to south and south west.

SPLendid WORK.—One of the Messrs. Wyse, of Placentia, arrived there Wednesday and will appear at the Rossley Star Theatre to-night at a week's fishing. This is the best individual catch this season at the Cape, where fish is once more very plentiful.

Mr. Dodd, formerly of the Methodist College, arrived at Botwood on Monday by the Castalia and will appear at the Rossley Star Theatre to-night at the show to be given for the Marine Disaster Fund. Mr. Dodd was a favorite in concerts and theatrical performances while here, and is a high-class elocutionist and a man of talent.

RESIDE HERE.—Mr. and Mrs. Holwell reside on Balaam Street, this city, and like the friends of their son, Ernest, scout the idea of his committing the crime imputed to him in New York. He was always a most inoffensive and decent chap, and his friends soon hope to hear of his release from custody.

GOOD REPORTS.—The schr. Maggie Sullivan, Downer, master, arrived from Twillingate yesterday afternoon with herring, oil and seal skins, and reports good fishing at Twillingate where traps have from 200 to 300 qts. ashore. Hook and line men are also doing fair and get 1 and 2 qts. daily.

STAYING AT BARBADOS.—Capt. Wilson of the Lake Simcoe reports that there are fifteen St. John's seamen down at Barbados knocking around on the beaches, living on fruit, etc., and with no work to do. These are men who left various Newfoundland vessels there. The mother of one of them recently sent him $20 to get him off the island.

The Beauty of Holiness.

I love thy skies, thy sunny mists,
Thy fields, thy mountains hoar,
The wind that bloweth where it lists;
Thy will I love it more.

I love thy hidden truth to seek
All round, in sea or shore;
The arts whereby like gods we speak;
Thy will to me is more.

I love thy men and women, Lord,
Thy children round thy door,
Calm thoughts that inward strength afford;
Thy will, O Lord, is more.

But when thy will my life shall hold,
Thine to the very core,
The world which that same will did mould
I shall love ten times more.
