

Easter Sunday

St. Mary the Virgin.

Easter services, the Queen of Festivals, was held at St. Mary's yesterday. Holy Communion was celebrated at 6.30, 8, 9.30 and at noon (a record service) over 550 persons receiving the Sacrament. The morning and evening services were bright and hearty, and the Parish Church was filled at both services. At the morning service about 70 Naval Reserve men from H.M.S. Briton were addressed by the Rector at the close of the sermon. The Easter Anthem "He is Risen" was well rendered by the full choir at both services. The solos were sung by Messrs. Ruggles and Cranford. At the evening service a solo "Nearer My God to Thee" was beautifully sung by Mr. Ruggles. Mr. G. B. Lloyd celebrates his 25th anniversary as organist at St. Mary's to-day being absent only six times from church during that period. He received the congratulations from both clergy and laity and trust he will be spared to occupy the same position for years to come.

At Maths.—Processional Hymn, 170; Easter Anthem, grand chant; Proper Psalms, 2, 57, 111; Te Deum (Laudamus) quadruple (Simpson); Jubilate (Deo); Dr. E. Ayton's anthem, "He is Risen"; Hymns, 171, 162, 160. Preacher: The Rector. Evensong.—Processional Hymn, 170; Proper Psalms, 112, 114, 118; Magnificat (Sir J. Goss); Nunc Dimittis (Dr. Ames); Anthem, "He is Risen"; Hymns, 177, 178, 459; solo by Mr. F. Ruggles, "Nearer My God to Thee"; National Anthem. Preacher, Rev. H. L. Pike.

St. Thomas's Church.

Unusually large congregations attended St. Thomas's Church yesterday, and it was in many ways a day to be long remembered. In the morning Holy Communion was celebrated at 6.30, 8 and after the 11 o'clock service, about eight hundred communicants attending. The music and singing was of a specially high order. The Lenten Self-Denial offering which will be devoted to the S.P.G., was taken up at both the morning and evening services, and exceeded by half the amount asked for by the clergy of St. Thomas's, and over one-third of the sum asked for by the Lord Bishop of Newfoundland from the churches at large.

At Cochrane St. Church

The Easter Sunday Services at Cochrane St. Church were especially well attended. At the morning service a large contingent of the N.R. Regiment was present under Lieut. Hickey. The preacher was the Rev. H. Royle, his theme being the Resurrection. The evening worship was conducted by the Rev. C. A. Whitmarsh, M.A. Both the gentlemen in choice language dwelt on the Easter message, drawing its lessons for the Christian world of today. The singing was hearty. Miss Herder's solo "Hosanna" and the Anthems, "Awake up my Glory" and "Heath is swallowed up in Victory" by the choir, were exceptionally well rendered. The church was neatly decorated with flowers, and the work of the floral committee of the Epworth League.

Wesley Church.

The congregations were very large at both services. In the morning Rev. N. M. Guy, M.A., delivered a very able discourse from 1st Corinthians, 15th Chapter and 17th verse: "For if Christ be not raised from the dead then is our preaching in vain. For the certainty of the resurrection, he showed that there was the same evidence as of all other historical events, that of eyewitnesses, of several appearances, to many persons and recorded statements of personal interviews on those occasions. If the disciples stole the body from the tomb, why did they go early in the morning to embalm it, if the soldiers took it, why did they on the suggestion of priests blame it on the disciples, and why did not the Jewish authorities produce the body, to disprove that Christ was alive, and the sepulchre empty, only because He had power to say "I am He that liveth and was dead, and behold I am alive for evermore." Then the importance of the resurrection—if we eliminate this truth and all its supporting vouchers, we must cut out all those precious promises of Christ to those who will come to Him, love and serve Him. We must consider all our hopes for immortality and reunion in a heavenly home, crushed and gone. But it shall not be so—the proofs are infallible and atheism and infidelity can no more smash them than the enemies of Jesus could destroy his influence. The rise, power and permanence of the Christian Church is the greatest evidence of the risen Lord, its founder, for the symbol of glory and triumph. At night, Rev. H. Royle preached from St. John's Gospel, 21st chapter, the direction of Christ to Peter "Feed thy Sheep." It was an earnest appeal to carry out the Divine Master's order and carry His name to every man. The anthems at both services were fine. Mr. Pratt had his fine choir well trained, and Miss Evans, the soprano soloist, sang her words and notes very sweetly.

Everyday Etiquette.

"Should I thank my partner every time after a dance is finished?" queried May.
"After dancing the young girl does not thank her partner. She has conferred the favor and he should thank her," replied her sister.

The Anniversary Battle of Ypres.

Yesterday, April 23rd, was the anniversary of the Battle of Ypres, in which the Canadian troops won undying glory. Some of our own boys were there notably Pte. Phil Jensen, Pte. W. Hart and Pte. Frampton, all of whom were wounded in that terrible fight. The Canadian Government and Municipalities asked every person in Canada who had a flag, to have it flying yesterday in remembrance of the great day, and no doubt the fair Dominion was bedecked in bunting from the Pacific to the Atlantic in honor of that day.

THE CHARM OF CLEAN HANDS.

Gracefulness is not the only charm your hands must possess. They must show care and cleanliness. Dirty nails, or rough, red skin would take every last particle of graceful out of graceful gesture. After washing your hands be sure and dry them thoroughly. Hands that are half dried will become rough and red, especially when one goes into the open air.

Protect your hands as much as possible. When doing housework wear gloves. Rubber gloves should be worn when the hands are in water, and those fitting kid or cloth gloves when doing other work. If your hands become stained, rub them with lemon juice or alcohol to remove the stains. Dry mustard rubbed on your hands will remove disagreeable colors.

At night before retiring the hands should be given as careful treatment as the face and neck. Scrub them out with a brush, a pure soap and warm water. Rinse thoroughly and be sure to dry them thoroughly. If they are rough, rub a good cold cream, olive oil, or almond oil, into them, then put on a loose fitting glove. This will soften the hands and keep them from becoming dry and chapped.

A splendid hand whitening formula to use after washing is fifteen grains of powdered borax the same of common table salt, one half a dram of spirits of ammonia, one dram of oil of orange, two ounces of glycerine, and six ounces of alcohol.

For daily care of the hands use a tablespoon of green soap diluted with two tablespoons of water and ten drops of peroxide of hydrogen. Use on an orange wood stick to clean out under the nails, being careful not to pull or in anyway to bruise the nail itself.

The latest cretonne desk sets are made of striped cretonne.

FADS AND FASHIONS.

Demure square-cut necks go naturally with shoulder puffs.

Huge checks are favored in wash materials for sports skirts.

Four of the best dark greens are ivy, mint, forest and myrtle. Sleeves are mostly wide and gathered into a cuff at the wrist.

Favorite materials for afternoon gowns are taffeta and faille.

Nearly all the dark grays this season have a brownish cast.

More jewelry is worn than has been the case for many years.

Transparent brims are a feature of some of the newest sailor hats.

Gray, beige, rose and fuchsia are frequently seen in taffeta dresses.

Dolman-like costees are rucked all round in the true old-fashioned way.

Blazer and awning stripes are very much in favor in wash fabrics.

Combinations of materials are frequently used in children's wash dresses.

The remains were enclosed in a handsome casket provided by Undertaker Myrick. At the Cathedral, Rev. Dr. Greene officiated.

MR. T. LAWLOR.

Futile Search for Missing Men.

There is still no tidings of the two men Alex. and Frank Scammell, of Change Islands, and the s.s. Cabot, Capt. Jacob Kean, which went in search of them, returned Saturday evening, after an unsuccessful mission. The Scammell men left Little Fogo Island a fortnight ago in a boat to go seal hunting. The boat was later found turned bottom up, but there was no sign of the men. It is concluded that a tragedy has happened, as the Cabot made a thorough search in the direction the men went and traversed a considerable area along the edge of the ice in the vicinity of the Funks, but without success. The fact of the two brothers, both young men not turning up, has cast a gloom over the district of Fogo.

AT THE CRESCENT.

The Crescent Picture Palace opens to-day with a classy picture program. During the past week the Crescent has undergone a thorough cleaning up, and has been painted from top to bottom, and is now one of the brightest theatres in the city. Mr. Frank de Groot, a noted singer from New York, arrived by the Stephano, and will open a limited engagement to-day.
