The usual quiet observance of Thanksgiving day here was violently interrupted shortly after noon to-day when crowds who had attended High Regueman Mass in memory of Terence MacSwiney, former Mayor of Cork, rebelled at the sight of a British flag decorating the facade of the Union Club across Fifth Avenue from St. Patrick's Cathedral. After a fight participated in by hundreds of Irish sympathizers in the course of which shattering by missiles hurled by members of the mob, order was restored when a cordon of two hundred police established itself around the beleaguered building. The Union Jack was the cause of the assault and though taken down by the superintendent at the first demand of the crowd and subsequently replaced by order of the club officers, it was still draped over the sidewalk with the emblems of France and United States when the fracas ended.

Church Lads Brigade.

The Armory had a mixed appearance last night. One wondered if it was a C.L.B. parade or a poultry show, only the coops were empty. The companies paraded in the centre as usual for their regular drill exercises under the command of company officers. Lt.-Col. R. F. Goodridge, O. C., and Major Raley, M.C. were present and the following: Major Williams, Quartermaster, Capt. Outerbridge, O.B.E., Henry, Frank Miles; Lieuts. Harold Hayward, W. R. Mott, Fred Reid, A. Perlin, Geo. Hunt and Phil B. Rendell. The brigade is now settling down after its recent 29th birthday celebration, which programme began on St. Martin's Day, Nov. 11th, Armistice Night. This was the 29th anniversary of the founding of the Brigade in London, and the 29th year of the organization of the Brigade in Newfoundland, when the battalion held a torch light parade with an exhibition of fire works. On Sunday at 8 a.m. all ranks proceeded to St. Mary's Church for Holy Communion and at 3.40 p.m. for the afternoon service. Tuesday, Nov. 16th, a big tea and concert was given the boys, for which the officers are grateful to the lady friends for their help in catering. On Wednesday, Nov. 17th, the Old Comrades' smoker took place in the Armory gym, when His Excellency the Governor was present, and a toast list was gone through with, and a cable of greeting and appreciation sent to Lt.-Col. Franklin, D.S.O., Imperial Trade Commissioner in British South Africa, for his work during many years in C.L.B. work. The Old Comrades had a card tournament on Tuesday night in the band room, whilst the officers concluded the festivities with a grand dance under the auspices of the mess. The officers express their appreciation and grateful thanks to Mrs. Herbert Outerbridge who kindly supervised the supper and tables, also to the following ladies who presided and gave their help generally: Mesdames Alan Goodridge, Ralph Wood, Arch McPherson, Geo. R. Williams, R. F. Goodridge, House, R. B. Jcb, Angus Reid, I. F. Perlin, J. R. Bennett, Fred Alderidge, T. A. Hall, Fred Reid and Misses Mildred Clift, Hayward, Lauder and Mary MacKay. We were all glad to welcome Capt. Angus Reid, of the Highland Brigade, and Major O'Grady, O.B.E., and Capt. Power of the C.C.C. It looked good to see them again in their old familiar uniforms; we don't meet these gentlemen often enough. The dance was most successful socially and financially and everybody went home happy after a delightful evening spent with the officers' mess. The following we take from routine orders:—Corporal Cook has been ordered to organize the bugle band and the following buglers have been placed under his command: Ptes. W. Williams, H. Whitten, C. Corrick, L. Ross and W. Bugden. All committees must tender financial statements to the paymaster within 14 days after the date of each event. The following recruits have been posted: W. Hynes, N. Vail, C. Bassett, R. Nelder, W. Thorne, C. Curtis, D. Coombs, C. Deer. We congratulate Wabana officers on their promotions, Lieut. Miller promoted to be Captain and 2nd Lt. Gover to Lieutenant, and Staff Sergt. Radford to be Co-Sergt. Major, whilst Lance Corporal Bennett is promoted to be Corporal. We are sorry to note Co-Sergt. Major Butler's resignation at Wabana. At Headquarters this week, Rev. A. B. S. Stirling is Duty Chaplain, whilst Lieut. Lance Hayward is Orderly Officer. The following have been awarded bronze pendants for five years good conduct service: Corporals R. Withers, Wood, G. Bayly and E. Ewing. The following Lieutenants have been promoted to be Captains: Lieut. Frank Miles, F. Co., and Lieut. N. Henry, commanding A. Co., Capt. Henry to rank prior in seniority. Mr. A. King, an American and a veteran of the Royal Nfld. R.

ment has joined the battalion and has been appointed to be O.C. of the Brigade's Educational Dept. known as the "Brigade College," vice Lieut. Fred Emerson resigned.

The officers' mess have recently received a challenge from R. B. Job Esq., and his team known as "the big six," to a ping pong tournament in the mess room, and the officers are looking forward to the trial of skill.

The Old Comrades met last night with a big attendance under President Peckham. A sick visiting and building committees were formed. The Old Comrades purpose to build an extension to their present quarters. A card tournament will be held next Tuesday night and it is hoped to hold a wrestling tournament later.

A membership campaign will be arranged soon, and President Peckham and his veterans will make a "big drive" to enlist all the old brigade members. The N.C.O.'s mess are holding a supper and dance in the Armory on the 6th December, which will be the last dance for the year, and a big wrestling tournament under the auspices of the C.L.B. Athletic Association will be held likely on December 10th. There are about a dozen athletes now training hard for this exhibition of science and strength.

There will be no drill next week as the Armory has been hired to the Nfld. Poultry Association for the week, when the building will be the scene of the "battle of the cocks." Contractor W. R. Butler has already started to build and arrange the coops and allot spaces for the exhibition of cut flowers, which this year will be a new attractive feature of the Nfld. poultry men's 1920 show—
