"Foreign Help."

Evening Telegram. pear Sir.—I should be much obliged you would publish this in reply to Fair Play, His letter of a recent ssue most certainly shows that he been sadly misinformed, and I he has been overcome by some remature patriotic sentiment. I do wish, however, to enter into any engthy and fruitless newspaper confict, but as one side of the affair has heen so aptly put, I feel it is only right to give the subject real Fair play. Those who are apparently such an eye sore to your correspondent came out to fill vacancies which local abor at that time was unable to fill being, I believe, absolutely insufficient). They were accepted as settlers in the country and, being British subjects, and having fought to maintain British freedom, they certainly are not aliens even in the island of Newfoundland.

Had the letter of Fair Play been rom one of the aborigines, I could uite have understood his sentiments. t knowing full well that Mr. Fair play or his ancestors must have emirated at some time or other, I feel re he has neglected to view the subfrom that standpoint. With re-Newfoundlanders abroad his sperience is apparently very limited. and it is evident he was not overseas during the past eight years.

He is certainly very humerous in his remarks, and I must take this oportunity to thank him for the algether superfluous compliments. At he same time it would be well for im to learn true Fair Play and play air in the game of life. Yours truly,

S. A. REAKES.

Concert and Sociable.

A most enjoyable concert and sociable was held on Wednesday night in the Presbyterian Hall, under the able supervision of Mr. J. H. Jardine, through whose efforts the affair was arranged. A large number of people attended and greatly enjoyed the excellent programme. The folfowing artistes took part: Mesdames (Dr.) Murphy, C. F. Garland; Misses Mitchell, Calvert, Emily, Jardine, Oates and Watson; Messrs. A. Stansfield, H Courteny and A. Bulley. During the evening the Ladies' Committee served refreshments. Rev. R. Power presided over the concert.

Employers' Association Meet.

Employers' Protective Assonation held a meeting yesterday fternoon to discuss matters in conection with the new schedule of vages which comes into effect on Monday next. The Association received a communication from the L.S.P.U. acknowledging their letter asking that a deputation from the Union meet the employers, but the Union refused to comply with the request. The employers unanimously decided to adhere to the scale of wa-

Girls' West End Club

The sale of Work in said and the

HOLD SUCCESSFUL STILL

Girls West End Club, which took place vesterday afteraces, was tide-cided success. At 4 o'clock Mrs. R.A. Squires, wife of the Prime Minister, opened the sale. Her address was highly appreciated by the large as dience present. She first congratules ed the Executive on the work they had already accomplished, and spoke of the social side of life, which is being developed to-day to a much larger extent than it was in our grandpa time. The age in which we live is the development of all that lies before us. We should leave the world better for our having lived in it. We think and talk of the work in other places, and do not always see the great need there is at home. As an illustration she told of a poor little boy, who, from his own broken and shabby dwelling, saw in the distance shining in the sunlight a beautiful house, and at once walked toward it. When he reached the place he was so disappointed that he sat down and wept. It was not what he expected to find, and looking back toward his own home, he now saw it shining in the golden sunlight, making just as beautiful a picture asthe other had been. In closing Mrs. Squires spoke of the advantage of having one large central club. St. John's needed it, and if a number of interested women would band themselves together, and work toward this end. much might he accomplished in the near future. The sale was then declared open, and the stalls and teal tables were well patronized during the remainder of the afternoon.

The Executive Committee are very grateful to all who by their presence. and donations, assisted in making the sale of 1921 such a success. In the evening at 8 o'clock a concert was held, when there was an exhibition of Mrs. Jarley's Wax-works, and the following ladies and gentlemen took part: Mesdames Harris and Cocker Miss C. Editor Evening Telegram.

· Dear Sir,-I am glad to see that the City Council have decided to give some employment to the unemployed of the city. Now, Sir, being a citizen, for over fifty years, and having watched closely the improvements that the City Council have made, and are still making as their means allow from time to time, I would respectifully ask whose duty it is to look after some of the roads in the suburbs of the city, especially where some of our citizens had to go back and build houses. And particularly the road leading in to Burton's Pond and Long Pond Roads, where some of our respectable citizens had to go and build comfortable homes. I think such people deserve a little attention from the Government, and make the roads a little respectable, and level off the big banks of rocks and stones, and straighten them up a little; widen and put sidewalks, before any further building is allowed, which is done in every other city in the world. It will be too late in short when other buildings are put up, to make these improvements, except at a great expense to the Government or whoseever duty it will be to do sc. I hope, Mr Editor, that those few lines will suffice to call the attention of the responsible parties to this matter, and that it will be attended to now, or as quick as possible. Also I think the Reid Nfid. Co. deserve credit for putting the electric wires" along that road, as it is a great privilege to those building such beautiful houses and a great encouragement to our citizens to see the interest they have taken in them. Thanking you for space in your valuable paper, I remain, A CITIZEN.

April 29, 1921.

For years I have never considered my stock of household remedies com-plete unless a bottle of Minard's Liniment was included. For burns, Liniment was included. For burns, bruises, sprains, frostbites, or chilbiains it excells, and I know of no better remedy for a severe cold in the head, or that will give more immediate relief, than to inhale from the bottle through the nasal organ.

And as to my supply of veterinar, remedies it is essential, as it has invery many instances proven its value. A recent experience in reclaiming what was supposed to be a lost section of a valuable cow's udder has again demonstrated its great worth and prompts me to recommend it in the highest terms to all who have a herd of cows, large or small. I think I am safe in saying among all the patent medicines there is none that covers as large a field of usefulness as does Minard's Liniment. A real truism good for man or beast.
