THE EVENING TELEGRAM, ST. JOHN'S, NEWFOUNDLAND, DECEMBER 16, 1921-3

Prominent British Statesmen Support Irish Agreement.

Bonar Law and Asquith Accept Treaty--Dail Eireann Not Reached Any Decision--Revised Naval Ratio Plan Goes Through.

ACCEPTS TREATY. firm belief that the Government has LONDON, Dec. 15 taken the right course, a courageous event of the day in con- course and the only course. We start the Irish settlement was now with clean hands and a clean of Bonar Law, former conscience." This statement evoked a ader in the House and storm of cheers. Colonel John Gratong men on the Ulster ton, leader of the Conservative dieccept the treaty and if not hards, moved an amendment to the come into address in reply to the Speech from ment, at all events to coun- the Throne. The amendment expresstance of the boundary com- ded regret that the proposed settlewhich Marguis Londonderry ment "would involve surrender of the ouse of Lords hinted Ulster rights of the Crown in Ireland and Bonar Law had been give power to establish an independrelied on by the Dichards ent Irish Army and Navy," while reat all, to support Lord quiring further sacrifice by Ulster opposing the treaty, at the and failing to safeguard the rights of remain nuetral. His speech Loyalists in Southern Ireland. The much out of the force of amendment was seconded by Rupert ite attack, and is consider- Gwynne, Unionist member for Susser insured the ratification by who spoke in bitter terms against the ming majority in the Com- conclusion of the agreement with four able

alue

ught

ma

was his

d we

rly

223

Tr.

ised

loal.

r ton

d in Ireland

elming majority in the com- conclusion of the agreement with tom ad he opposed the Treaty members of the "murder gang." Winand have been an acquisition ston Churchill declared the Treaty es of the Diehards, estimat- paid fully, in his view, the Govern 40 to 50. Lord Carson in ment's debt of loyalty to Ulster. As debate said there was no- to the Irish army, whatever it might except that be, the Empire was powerful enough beaten to her knees by to control it. Churchill defended the eguns of the assassins, said she was form of oath allegiance. Lloyd to settle with Ireland." He George, replying to questions .aid the debate as a splendid Parliament had power to make All other brands will be forsaken. monies of the misguided Unionist changes in the Agreement, but allo- The appetizing strips of lean arty and a funeral oration to cover cation's made by either side without the defeat and humiliation suffer- the consent of both would destroy the pact and necessitate the re-opening of negotiations with the risk of And never will you find it tough.

ASQUITH SUPPORTS TREATY. involving the prospects of settlement. LONDON. Dec. 15. The feature of the early proceedings DAIL MAY VOTE TO-DAY. afternoon in the House of Com-DUBLIN, Dec. 15. ons was an address by former Pre-The hope that the Dail would be ier Asquith, heartily commending able to reach a vote on ratification of Anglo-Irish Treaty for the ac- the Anglo-Irish Treaty in public sesptance of the House. Mr. Asquith sion to-morrow, was expressed by lared the pact gave Ireland the Michael Collins as the Dail went into llest measure of local autonomy another secret session at six o'clock served to all Irishmen their this evening. have of free citizenship through-

Entertains Pupils. Last night at Spencer Lodge Miss Clark, superintendent of Spencer Lodge gave the pupils in residence a social evening before the breaking up for the Christmas holidays. The pupils were allowed to invite their guests about fifty were present. The guests were received by Miss Clarke and the staff. The programme opened by a playlet called "Between the Soup and the Savory." The characters were, Sarah, the cook, Miss Reith; Ada, the Parlourmaid, Miss Weatherhead; Emily, the kitchen maid, Miss Paris. This was highly enjoyed by everybody as the acting was extra well done. The above ladies and members of the staff of Bishop Spencer College. During the interval Misses Doris Mercer and Nina Granger gave pianoforte solos. The half of the programme was second moving pictures by the movie stars of Bishop Spencer Lodge who performed the film themselves which was written for the occasion by Miss Weatherhead, the name of which was "The Root of all Evil." The leading movie stars were Misses Hilda Norman. Mollie White, Hattie Cheeseman, Edith Manuel, Mollie and Jean Butler and Doris Mercer, whilst Miss Reith accompained on the piano. Refreshments were served after the performance and a vote of thanks passed to Miss Clarke and the staff for their hospitality. Messrs, G. R. Williams and S. C. Thompson in short speeches congratulated the pupils and to Miss Joiner who trained the girls and the staff on the excellent performance

Men's Overcoats,

at $17.98

these

We've grouped all our bet

style, and worth a whole lot

Each, $17.98

more than our price.

Shaving Sets

Good quality, heavy plate mirror; Brush, heavy weight base

WE WILL GIVE YOU $5.00 IN GOLD FOR CHRISTMAS. All goods that bear the Wilson Label Are best to put upon your table If once you've used their famous Bacon Lots of "Excess Values" in Have layers of luscious fat between. Delicious both to eye and taste, No scrap of it will go to waste 'Tis not too salt, though salt enough If with our claims you disagree ter Overcoats for men at this Your money will refunded be Order to-day, accept no other, low Xmas Price.

Take home a pound or two to Mother. And, having put it to the test She'll say that Certified is best J. B. MITCHELL & SON, LTD. War Veterans' Sale. A SPLENDID EXHIBITION.

out sleeves and some with half sleeves. Each (with sleeves) .. $4.98 Each (sleeveless) ....$3.25

