

THE EVENING TELEGRAM, ST. JOEN'S, NEWFOUNDLAND, MARCH 19, 1924-2

It is best for cleaning and disinfecting sinks, drains, closet bowls, etc.; for softening water, making your own laundry soap; cleaning floors, greasy pots and pans, etc.; for removing old paint, destroying vermin, etc., Full directions with every can. Be sure you get the genuine Gillett's FLAKE Lye. Substitutes are usually costly and unsatisfactory.

Over 500 Uses

MADE NEEDED IN N EVERY HOME.

please."

The Countess of Landon.

CHAPTER XI. Life went on as usual for rather more than a week, and then a change came; the countess looked up from a letter which she had been reading, and said, quietly: "Seymour is coming down to-day.

Irene." brushed as smoothly as a Manchester's She announced it without a trace of rejoicing in her tone, and in the terrier's, and, with a filial smile on same breath turned to the butler, and his face, greeted his mother affectionately and with profound respect. said: "I do hope I have not inconvenience "The earl is coming to-day; send the carriage to meet the seven o'clock ed you by so short a notice, mother," Train, please, and tell Mrs. Greene"_ he said, looking at her with his head he stewardess-"to have everything a little on one side; "but though I Peady." Irene started slightly, very slightly, wered Royce's inquiry after his brother came for a moment into her face. slave-little better than a slave!" But when the countess a moment or Now, part of this nice sentence was snake! From other vices a man may two later asked:

The dressing-bell had rung before he earl reached home, and with that consideration for which he was so justly noted. Seymour remarked to "Tell the countess I will not disturb her, but will see her at dinner.

He came down just two minutes be fore the bell rang-punctuality was one of Seymour's numerous virtuesbeautifully and tastefully dressed, his shirt-front spotless as himself, and without a wrinkle, and his hair

"Would you like to go and meet to Monk Towers, but his luck had in the fatal circle of the gamblingeymour, Irene?" she said, quietly: improved during the last week, and table, and all is lost-lost!"

WE ACT AS

AGENTS FOR

EXECUTORS

The

Prince's

the Ra

More

Singa

Carrie

Official con

reports that

themselves

the present

a Republic.

SHAH SURPHI

IN

eived by the

Sir Herbert S. Holt. .. President. A. J. Brown, K.C.... Vice-Pres. F. G. Donaldson. . Gen'l Manager ". ". Palfrey, Mgr., St. John's oct14,3i,eod

Bear's

COMPRISING:

ity, tins of 50.

ity 10's packages.

CASH'S

TOBACCO STORE

Water St.

the market.

sept29,eod

The Shah is aides, et England's Most Famous that the publi terested in the danger of Cigarettes ruler. . whom refer to to-da his throne b absolutely We have in Stock a shipthe report mittee of fift ment of the famous decided to p v Insistent Shah to send Virginia Cigarettes. an attendant general effec sympathize in his future Bears No. 1 First Qualprotracted] in Paris for Bear's No. 1 First Qualwith a large expensive ho auarters re Bear's Ark Royal First sontinues to Quality, tins of 50. the race track affairs. Bear's Elephant Best Quality, tins of 50. REASON OF The above Cigarettes are considered by Smok-England ers to be the very best tion of the the Prince of high class' Virginia on Cross steepl motion pictu shown. The fi

swerved his

to spect

the course.

stride and fa

hurling the

kicking him

SINGAPORE

Definite an

the House of

Government'

further with

scheme. Cha

mentary Sec

made the an

declared the

the decision

of all relativ

tation with

The announc

by the Labor

BELGIUM

BRUSSELS

France is

udgets bas

ations payme

was made

Theunis in 1

his reconstr

Chamber of

ment, he de

not to raise

(The second

publie works

M

face.

"I think I would rather stay with he could not tear himself away-from you, madame." the cards.

If she had been asked if she would like to go to meet Royce, she would to the countess his pale eyes had been almost have sprung off her chair.

pair of bays, and its powdered ser- had finished with the countess, and held told me so." vants in the Landon livery, awaited out both hands. "How well you are looking, Irene!" the seven o'clock train, and not only the footman, but the station-master he murmured, his thin lips stretched and all the porters pressed forward across his face, his eyes covering her, to receive the earl as he alighted from so to speak, with a bland and tender service! What is to be said-what is admiration. "Ah! we don't grow those the train.

He looked round with a benevolent roses in London"-Irene's face was smile, and said, "How do you do, without a trace of color-"and our James?" to the footman, and stood for London belles do not wear their diaa minute talking to the station-mast- monds in their eyes! You are wise er and asking after his wife and to love the dear country, dear Irene." Irene put both her hands in his, but children; nodded pleasantly to the porters as he gave them twopence to gently drew them away from his ferdivide among them, and at last got in vid clasp, and stole back to her chair. the carriage and was driven to Monk She had, after the first glance at his entrance, scarcely looked at him. Towers.

He did not smile much as he leaned "And what is the news?" he said, back against the soft cushions; but leaning against the mantel-shelf in his face grew bland and benevolent the attitude with which he always rcagain when they reached the lodge, ceived a deputation. "But 1 suppose and he poked his head out of the winyou expect all the news to come from dow and spoke to the lodge-keeper, me. Dinner, Johnson? Come, then; and calling one of the ruddy-faced let us go in. I must give an arm to children to him, asked her if she went each of you, must I not?" and with an to Sunday-school. But the child assumption of playfulness, he led them shrunk back and clung to its mother's into the dining-room. apron, and looked as if it meant cry-At the table he did nearly all the ing, notwithstanding the earl's smile; talking, the countess sitting upright Royce, expecting the toss in the air as a dart, the handsome face inscrutwhereas it always ran laughingly to which he never disappointed it.

Read of Mrs. Ryder's Relief from Eczema - A BRIEF STORY

Still another letter for the liquid wash for Ill another letter who had chronic strumma, ma, from a sufferer who had chronic strumma vering her face-winter after winter, Mrs. H. Ryder of Pleasant Point, St. John Co. B., tells of the many dollars spent with doo-r, and other remedies, of her suffering and r, and other remedies, of her suffering and r, and other remedies, of her suffering and of her for the second s ing the weekly let elief or your money back. Stop that itch at mos. $1.00 a battle, Try D. D. D. Soap, too.

Lotion for Skin Disease about his last speech in the House of ALL DRUGGISTS.

All the time he had been speaking heaving, her heart throbbing. wandering to the spot where Irene He has not touched a card for months ably calm, her voice, when she spoke,

rising and falling in measured cadence, and Irene-sitting almost silent, with eyes that were mostly downcast.

Now and again she raised them, and once she saw the dark eyes of the countess wander from the earl's lack-color to the noble one of her dead

husband in the picture over the mantel-piece. It was a strange look, and it haunted Irene for hours afterward.

The earl, as he eat his dinner slowly, and as if he were conferring an inestimable favor upon it, meandered

softly and purringly on from one topic to another; but they were all connected with his own life, and, as he termed, his own "work." He told them

Lords, and what the newspapers said

to be done?"

suddenly, glided from the room.

tablish his legal right, except he is y refunded. The Piner Co., Teronto, there at prayers and places the card in the socket in the back of the bench.

St.JOHN'S Grocery Stores Assorted Jellies Pts. package 15c. Vegetable and Tomato Soup, tin . . 15c. Cooked Corned Beef Armours Beans, 2's, Pet Milk, 1 lb., tin . 16c. Pea Beans, best quality, lb. 10c. Large Green Peas, lb. 10c. Local Cabbage. J. J. ST. JOHN. Duckworth St. & LeMarchant Road. Goodform Hair Nets. A particular hair net for particular women. GOODFORM NETS. Serve to hold the attractive appearance of the hair. Single Mesh 15c. Double Mesh 20c We guarantee them perfect. PETER O'MARA, THE DRUGGIST. Bookseller & Stationer. THE REXALL STORE.