day, the 14th inst., a very destructive fire broke out in Mr. John Cober's steam saw mill, bending and carriage factory, the fire had made such progress that all efforts to extinguish the flames were utterly unavailing, and in half an hour the large establishment, with all its contents, beer, boring machire, planing and shingle machines, bending works, waggons and outher mother's brains with a clothes pole; struction, large quantities of bent stuff, three or four sets of tools, and a large amount of timber, seasoned and dressed, were all consumed. A considerable old ruffian roughly protested against his amount of lumber outside the building and Summer Resort, to save it. The cause of the fire is unknown, though it is supposed to have convin, though it is supposed to have originated from the furnace. The loss is $4,000, partly covered by an insurance of $1,200 in the Gore Mutual. Mr. Cobercame to Ethel recently from Puslinch, and his enterprising spirit and upright dealing have gained for him many friends all of whom deeply sympathize with him in his great loss.—Cox.

11 To 6.

In Boston, on Tuesday, the above nines played their 3rd championship game, in the presence of over 6000 people. The reds took the lead on the 1st innings, with 7 runs made of six 1b hits, and errors by Malone, Cuthbert and Fulmer. They also made 2 in 2nd inning, but were blanked right straight along except in 9th inning, when Barnes made home run. The whites had now scored 6, but were outbatted and outfielded from the word play, much to the disgust of the Boston fancy, who had made Quaker boys favorites. Field errors, Boston 5. the Ballimafad Star Temple No. 324, I.O.
of G. T., held in Mr. James Hilt's grovemear that place on Thursday 12th inst.
The weather being dengatini about 500 persons availed themselves of the opportunity of having a good day's enjoyment and sat down to the rich repast provided on the pic-nic principle. The Georgetown Band was present and enlivened the proceedings with choice selections of music. After luncheon the assemblage adjourned to the Hall which was crowded to suffocation. The chair was taken by adjourned to the Hall which was crowded to suffocation. The chair was taken by Bro. James Freuch who opened the programme with a pithy speech. Then followed a song by the Misses Tyndale, a recitation by Bro. R. Selwood and a song by Miss. Strange, all of which were well received and loudly applauded. The Rev. Mr. Hilts then delivered a racy and cloquent speech succeeded by a song by Misses Tyndale, Selwood and Beswick, a dialogue by Bro. Ed. Hills and Misses Cook and Russell, and instrumental Our Independants went to Rockwood to-day to play a match with the club of that village.
