THE WHEEL

A BICYCLE RELAY RACE.

An attempt to demonstrate the superior advantage of the bicycle over the horse as a factor in courier service was made Saturday. The start was made at Hartford, Conn., at 7 a.m., and the finish at Thirty-second street, New York, which point was reached at 3:22 p.m. The time was 8 hours and 22 minutes. Considering the fact that in a ride of this distance—1264 miles—all kinds of roads are encountered, the time made was very good. The schedule, if carried out, would have brought the men to the finish at 3 p.m. The contest against time was made by some of the crack racing men. It was arranged as a relay race, fresh men being stationed at various points to relieve the tired riders. All had flying starts and all rode pneumatic-tired wheels. Not an accident occurred, and only one or two falls, of no consequence, took place. FOOTBALL.

ALLIGATORS IN A BATH TUB.

A Chicagoan Bitten by an English Tourist's Pets.

New York, Nov. 3.—An Englishman named North arrived at the Hotel Brunswick from the South several days ago, bringing with him some young alligators, which he intended to take home with him. He takes the alligators with him into his bath every morning, but Sunday he forgot to carry his pets back to his room with him and left them blinking on a shelf above the bath tub. Not long after his departure a Mr. Cohn, of Chicago, ordered a warm bath. When be considered that sufficient time had elapsed for everything to be in readiness for him, he climbed sleepily out of bed, donned his bathrole and proceeded to the bath-room. Mr. Cohn had not more than entered the water before a sharp bite on each foot made him aware that he was not the only occupant of the bath. Mr. Cohn jumped out of the tub, went to his room and dressed. A bell boy was sent to investigate, and returned shortly with a small alligator in each hand. Mr. North's valet happened to be in the office, and recognized the animals, and they were placed in his custody. custody.

WATER THAT BURNS.

A Well Whose Palatable Fluid is as Inflammable as Naphtha.

CRAB ORCHARD, Ky., Nov. 4.—On the land of a farmer five miles east of here, near the village of Gum Sulphur, is a well which is a great wonder to those who have visited it. It is known as the "burning well," a proposed property of the waters. Ald. Thomas moved that negotiations be entered into with the G. T. R. with a view to getting the bridge over the Wortley road enlarged. Carried.

The city clerk was permitted to hand his rolls over to the collections on Nov. 15.
Ald. Ivey brought up his notice of motion to ask Engineer Chipman to bring in an estimate of the cost of the sewage system he had recommended to the city.

Ald. Speucer said this or some other Council would have to deal with this question. It was only a matter of time before this system has got to be adopted, and he would like to see it adopted as soon as possible.

Ald. Speucer said this or some other Council would have to deal with this question. It was only a matter of time before this system has got to be adopted, and he would like to see it adopted as soon as possible.

The city clerk was permitted to hand his rolls known as the "burning well," a near appropriately given, for its waters, though clear, limpid and drinkable, are as inflammable as naphtha. This well is about fifteen feet deep, extending down through a strata of slate rock. It contains a wooden pump stock, and the water, as it comes cold and sparkling from the depths of the well, has a mineral taste and is exceedingly pleasant to drink. Yet a dipper full of it coming in contact with flame will take fire, blazing up like gunpowder. The well's discovery, if the natives tell a true story, was rather remarkable. A party of full of it coming in contact with flame will take fire, blazing up like gunpowder. The well's discovery, if the natives tell a true story, was rather remarkable. A party of excursionists from the springs here went out in that section in quest of ferns, fossils and the like. On their return they found the well and stopped to get a drink. An old lady living near by brought a bucket and filled it with the refreshing fluid for the thirsty ramblers, and after they had drank she poured the remainder on the ground near the well. Just at this instant a young man of the party lit a cigarette and Park, Ald, Judd moved that Mr. Burdick's name be struck out and that of John Pring be inserted instead. He was surprised that there were twenty votes cast at the last Council meeting when only 16 or 17 members were present.

Ald. Ivey rose to a point of order, and asked if Henry Burdick was net appointed by the Council at the last meeting, subject to being ratified by bylaw. It was a funny thing to him that Ald. Judd, who sat in the chair and noticed the vote, had not called anybody's attention to it.

Ald. W. W. Fitzgerald, who seconded Ald. Judd's motion, said there were only fifteen votes cast, as the chairman did vote.

Ald. W. W. Fitzgerald said he had noticed men vote twice at the last meeting, as they had promised to vote for all. They heard a good deal about the "one man one vote" principle, but this "one man two votes" idea was like trying to serve God and the devil at the same time.

Ald. Skinner moved that John Scragg's name be placed in the bylaw. He held the same opinion on the question as when it was first mooted.

Ald. Judd's amendment to appoint John Pring was lost. Yeas—Aldermen Taylor, O'Meara, W. W. Fitzgerald, Skinner, J. Fitzgerald, Thomas and Judd—T. Nays—Aldermen Wyatt, Connor, Ivey, Winnett. Spencer, Scarrow, F. J. Fitzgerald, Bartlett and Shaw—9.
