Sea and leased to the Alaska Commercial Company.

The fact of these arrests being made more than three miles from shore is not doubted. The occurrence will have a pointed bearing upon two of the questions to be arbitrated upon, viz.: What exclusive jurisdiction in the sea now known as the Bering Sea, and what exclusive rights in the seal fisheries therein, did Russia assert and exercise prior and up to the time of the cession of Alaska to the United States; and second, how far were these claims of jurisdiction as to the seal fisheries recognized and conceded by Great Britain?
