Men and Clothes.

Men who are a bit particular about their appearance won't tolerate a misfit. They pay for perfect-fitting clothes, and want what they pay for. Quite right. A suit turned out from his establishment must perfectly satisfy the purchaser—it must suit, it must please, and it must be an advertisement to our ability to turn out first-class work.

The late Sterne J. Ball, whose death occurred at Windsor recently, came to the county of Middlesex in pioneer days in 1855. His father, Col. Ball, was in command of the Fourth Middlesex militia, and he himself was given command of one of the companies in the rebellion of 1857. After the opening of the Great Western Railway he accepted a position with that company. He continued railroad work until four years ago. Since then he has lived with his daughter, Mrs. Wm. Stokes, of Windsor. He also leaves four sons.

On Thursday last, a quiet wedding was solemnized in the personage of Talbot Street Baptist Church by Rev. J. J. Ross, the groom being Mr. Norman S. Ball, and the bride, Miss Margaret Sutherland. After the ceremony, the happy couple proceeded to the bride's home, where a breakfast was prepared for the friends and relatives, who had gathered to extend their congratulations. After spending a few hours with the bride and groom left for their home at 382 Oxford street, where they will be at home to their friends after April 11.

SOMETHING MORE THAN A PURGATIVE.—To purge is the only effect of many pills now on the market. Parrel's Vegetable Pills are more than a purgative. They strengthen the stomach, where other pills weaken it. They cleanse the blood by regulating the liver and kidneys, and they eliminate every other poisonous deposit. Nothing of an injurious nature, used for merely purgative powers, enters into their composition.

SEVEN OF THE LOCAL ANGLICAN CHURCHES HOLD VESTRY MEETINGS

Reviews of the Past Twelve Months' Work Submitted and Officers Elected.

Seven of the eight Anglican Churches in the city held their annual vestry meetings last night.

At each of the reports for the past twelve months were submitted for consideration, and as a whole they gave general satisfaction. Officers were elected for the year, and other business transacted. One of the oldest, if not the oldest officer, in the diocese, is Mr. A. G. Smyth, the clerk of the vestry at St. Paul's Cathedral. Mr. Smyth has been clerk for over 40 years, and was last night elected for another term.

MEMORIAL CHURCH.

Last night's meeting of the Cronyn Memorial Church was the first ever held by Rev. Dyson Hague, the rector, presiding, he having assumed charge of the church on Monday.
