MOROCCO'S SULTAN JOHN BULL WILL HAD BAD SCARE NOT GO HUNGRY

British Channel Fleet's Cruise Reassuring Report of Royal Commission on Food Supply During War.

London, Aug. 3.—The Times tonight received the following special telegraph dispatch from its correspondent at Tangier:

"The construction of the Mole at Tangier, the contract for which has been signed with a German firm, has promised the Germans as a part of the Sultan's undertaking to grant the contract for the construction of a German firm has been in the possession of the German legation for many months. It is incorrect to consider the affair as one that has recently arisen, although the contract has only been signed lately in Berlin.

"The foolish apprehension created in this country by the announcement of the Channel fleet's cruise in the Baltic is now beginning to give way to a shamed recognition of the fact that the contract has been secured by the unnecessary outcry.

"From first to last the episode has afforded striking proof of the extent to which the German policy depends for its ultimate success upon the momentary ignorance or indifference of Great Britain, but valuable from the British point of view as this indication may be, it is equally well to remember that the consciousness of comparative impotence is galling and that the German Michael, though for the moment compelled to clench his fist in his pocket, will simply be stimulated by this object lesson in British naval supremacy, and go on building ships more feverishly than ever.

London, Aug. 2.—The Madrid correspondent of The Daily Mail says that it has been decided to hold the Moroccan international conference at Madrid the beginning of November.

BRITISH ANNUITIES

Amount to $75,000 Yearly More Than All Pensions.

London, Aug. 2.—According to a parliamentary return issued today (Great Britain grants $50,000 in annuities to the royal family and pensions for judicial services, and the amount of $245,000, the total of which is $75,000 more than the pensions paid for naval, military, political and civil services together. The sum of $305,000 is spent in the maintenance of royal palaces, $100,000 on royal parks and $145,000 on the secret service. Broadmoor Asylum, for criminal lunatics, costs $170,000 yearly; the Irish central station, $620,000; the National Museum, $445,000; and the National Gallery $22,500.

DIED IN THE VESTIBULE

Sudden Demise of a Wealthy Plan—His Corpse Robbed.

New York, Aug. 3.—James H. Cleary, a wealthy real estate dealer at Highbridge, was found dead in the vestibule of his hotel by his wife yesterday afternoon. His friends, who were the victim of foul play, Mrs. Cleary happened to be going out and found her husband propped up against the wall of the vestibule. She summoned her friends, and after a hasty consultation, the police of the Highbridge station were called. An examination of the body showed that a finger of the left hand, on which Cleary had worn a large diamond ring, was badly bruised, as if it had been made to remove the ring. The stone of the ring was missing, and the police thought it had been pried from the setting. Coroner Barry ordered a physician to examine the body, and he reported that Cleary died from heart trouble.

Ottawa, Aug. 3.—It has been decided by the Minister of Militia Council that the clerical staff of the several commands and districts shall be as follows: Each command two clerks and one stenographer; first class districts, two clerks; second class districts, one clerk.
