Saw Panama Canal.

Dr. Henry Meek and Mr. John Herald have just returned from a four weeks' trip south. While away they spent a good deal of time in the districts through which the Panama Canal is being built. "The whole success of the American Gevernments work," said Dr. Meek, "is due to the splendid sanitary arrangements they have established everywhere. People now can live there, and as a result, the work is being rushed. It will be finished in 1914, and will cost $500,000,000. It was not so hot there as I expected. The temperature around the canal averaged $2 degrees, but there was a steady breaze."

The following names have been add-to the Queen Mary coronation fund st: Mary M. Winslade, Marle Bloom-eld, Mary Campbell, Emma Mary ordingler, Mary A. A. Maxwell, Mary ordingler, Mary Louisa Eveleigh, lary Wilson (Thamesford). The treas-ters for the fund are Miss Mary Bed-ome, Bank of Montreal building; Miss-uddicombe, South London: Miss La-att, Queen's avenue; Mrs. Scatcherd, decadily, street; Miss Mary Smith, 40 impress avenue, and Mr. Ernest Ruse, ifornia. These oranges are absolutely the finest that have ever been shipped out of California, and London has been especially favored in the quality of the oranges shipped.

The occasion of this immense consignment is a special sale by the California Fruit Growers' Exchange. The oranges have been sent here on a special fast train in order that they might not be injured or delayed in transit. ## AN AMAZING MARRIAGE.

The old adage that "love laughs at locksmiths" was aptly illustrated the other night by the secret marriage of Dr. J. W. Sherman, a young physician who is in jail at Chattanooga. Tennessee, awaiting trial on a charge of n-urder. The chief witness whom the prosecution intended to call against him was Miss Cleo Lucas, his betroth ed. Learning that a wife may not give evidence against her husband, Miss Lucas secured the services of a clergyman, with whom she went to the Jail at midnight. The bride placed a ladder against the prison, climbed the window of her lover's cell, and clasped his hands through the bars, while a minister standing beneath read the

An interesting specimen of a long clock, made in 1790, is owned by a gentleman at Lutterworth. It has an oval face, a hand which points to the days of the week, completing the round in seven days; one which shows the true dead beat, and another which points to the chimes and quarters, says the Westminster Gazette.

On the upper part of the clock is a small orchestra, which includes a flute, a 'cello, and two violins, and a boy and girl in addition to three singers. The hours and the quarters are struck, and every three hours a tune is played "times over either on the bells alone, the lyricord or on both together," while there figures beat time and the boy and girl dance to the musle.

As is usually the case, there is not much to the play, it being a combination of travesty, buriesque, and musical comedy.

The Jeffles-Johnson fight pictures, a buriesque on the big bout, were extremely funny. It was a noveltur, and the anudience were not slow to grasp the amusing features.

San Son, correct were surrounded himself with a good company. Miss Carrie Webber is a clever dancer, and sang pleasing-ty, wallow Mihippen played the "bones" to the great delight of the gallery, while Marie Hogan, in a Tough Girl dancies specialty, was clever.

There were some pretty songs, and the stage settings were adequate. The Jeffries-Johnson fight pictures, a buriesque on the big bout, were extremely funny. It was a novelty, and the audience were not slow to grasp the amusing features.

FORMER BELL BOY WINS AN HEIRESS

Young Husband, Now a Clerk Hopes to Become a Hotel Proprietor.

New York, April 17.-Three years go a bell boy at the Waldorf-Astoria

J. Arthur Stilwell, 22 years old, who is now a room clerk in the same hotel, is to marry. Miss Elizabeth Louise Schuman, daughter of C. A. Schuman, shoe manufacturer. Miss Schuman will inherit a fortune estimated at several millions of dollars, and is the possessor of an independent fortune in her own name.

Mr. Stilwell and Miss Schuman met for the first time on a New York Central train between Saratoga and Albany last May. They will be married on April 30.

Since she was graduated from college two years ago, Miss Schuman has been prominent in the younger set at Rochester, where her father owns a beautiful home.—When in New York the Schumans make their home at the Waldorf-Astoria, and Mr. Schuman has known his future son-in-law since Mr. Stilwell was a bell boy.

After remaining at the Waldorf-Astoria for a few more years, Mr. Stilwell hopes to return to his native state of Canifornia and become a full-fledged hotel proprietor himself.
