neson, t., Victoria, B.C.

HEART

tomach, so if you husband cheerful. your baking with

Baking

UCES PLEASING TRY.

ALWAYS

OWN LANDS. ven that subdivisions of 1 and 3, Pender Island, public auction, at the Victoria, 12 noon, on V. S. GORE. oner of Lands & Works. July 1896.

YOU DRINK THAN

DUBLIN) D" Very Old

Agents to J. J. & S .-, LONDON

GAN School

nical school. Practical S.M., and Ph. D. Lab well equipped

H. Ph. D. Director.

the Semi-Weekly Colonist.

THIRTY-EIGHTH YEAR.

VICTORIA BRITISH COLUMBIA MONDAY JULY 27 1896.

VOLUME XXXVIII. NO. 70

do ... connection pipa! Election Contest.

A Tunnel Cut Through a Brick Wall and Voting Papers Stolen.

TACOMA, July 23.—Yesterday was set by Judge Pritchard for counting the ballots in the contest brought by Mayor or ex-Mayor Edward S. Orr against verdict of the coroner's jury in the Tosh ested were before Judge Pritchard this let wound inflicted when in a scuffle zens will equip them. afternoon in the prosecution of the case. with Ed. Sheehan. Constable Murdock, It became necessary to have the ballots who heard the shot, testified that upon in court, and the judge on the bench ordered that Comptroller and Ex-Officio Clerk Benham produce the ballots. Mr. Self-defence. Several witnesses coryet been ascertained, when near Five Benham went immediately to the city roborated each other in stating hall in quest of the ballots, which had that after some words, in which the debeen securely locked and sealed in a vault on the third floor. When the door was unlocked a startling and sencinched and that a revolver went off, ing had been made through the brick the time they could not see who fired ballots in four precincts had been stolen. police to leave, and as he had not acted They are the second precinct of the up to the terms of the agreement the third ward, the first precinct of the sixth owners re-let the house to Sheehan, who citizens. Mr. Wilson came from Lanward, the second precinct of the seventh had taken possession and moved in his ward, and the first precinct of the eighth stuff. McKenzie, in spite of the warn-took charge of the Sapperton mills. He ward. As soon as the comptroller and his deputies ascertained the condition of determined to take possession of the one child. He leaves a wife and one child. the vault the party retired, the door was house by force, using threatening lanlocked, and word was immediately sent guage and holding his hand on his hip to Judge Pritchard's court room of the pocket all the time. discovery that had been made.

been watching the progress of the Popu- present County Assessor. list convention at St. Louis lost interest on the streets, Comptroller Benham's some years off and on. startling discovery was discussed, and many expressions denouncing the work of the miscreants who rifled the vault were heard. Naturally, the public were quick to fasten the responsibility for this outrage on Mayor Fawcett's administra-

Soon after the discovery was made, the vault was visited by the officers of the court, several councilmen, the attorneys interested in the case, Mayor Faw-cett and other city officials. The ballot the reporter that Mr. Carlisle made the statement to ex-Secretary of the Treasury Foster. Mr. Smith reiterates what he told the reporter, and incorporates a letter from Mr. Foster sustaining his close y. We advertise because we would lergely increase our already extensive business. All do not know our business characteristics, nor the pecuniary advantage to be derived from trading with us. We state everything in truth, and all persons favoring us with the assurance of our desire to give the greatest satisfaction in Styles, Qualities and Prices.

The reporter that Mr. Carlisle made the stream of the Treasury of the Treasury for the Treasury for the Treasury Foster. Mr. Smith reiterates what he told the reporter, and incorporates a letter from Mr. Foster sustaining his claim.

HIS WAS A SAD END.

TORONTO, July 23.—(Special)—Particulars concerning the young man Gilbert Brass, whose dead body was found by the roadside at Scarboro, near this city.

The fire son Ten-mile creek have been so bad that men have had to leave the Wrinkled Loveliness! Crinkled Prettiness! Puckered Beauty! Knotted Elegance!

Wash Fabrics. Percales. Teazle Down. Crepe Llamas.

Of course, in white goods we have the very best for the money, Nainsooks and Lawns from 12½ cts., India Lineas, Victoria Lawns, Divinity and Swiss, from 10 cts per yard, Fibre Fabric, for interlining, good ss the best, 15 cts. per yard, Haircloth and imitation Haircloth, at 15c. 25c, and 35c., Crinoline 10c., Wigan 10c., Imperial Silesis, worth 25c., now 20c., Silkoline 15c. and 20c., Sateens 12½c. and 15c.

The Westside.

J. HUTCHESON & CO'Y.

Deputy Clerk Roys, and a canvass of the returns was made. It was found that the ballots of the four precincts above named had been abstracted. Many of the seals on the other ballot boxes gave evidence of having been broken into. Part of the ballots had been inclosed in wooden boxes, and locked and sealed with red sealing wax. The ballots in other precincts were placed in paper sacks and sealed in a troller Benham, it is impossible to tell how many ballots were stolen. What effect the loss of the ballots will have on Mayor Orr's case no one can tell. THE STEVESTON SHOOTING.

STEVESTON, July 23.—(Special)—The wall into the vauit, and half of the bal-lot boxes had been broken into. the shot. It appears that the house had been let to McKenzie who paid a deposit, scovery that had been made.

In a surprisingly short time the news the bullet, a 44 calibre, entered at the that the city hall had been burglarized nose, and passing through the head, and the ballots stolen was on the streets, lodged at the base of the skull. Sheehan Alberni in a day or two for the purpose and it was the sole topic of conversation was committed for trial by Police Magisduring the remainder of the day. The trate Atkinson. Sheehan came from crowds at the bulletin boards who had Port Townsend, where his father is at "Tosh" McKenzie, the dead man, in everything save the crime that had had a very unenviable reputation, and been committed at the city hall. At the was well known to the police at Westclubs and hotels, as well as everywhere minster, where he has been living for tion. As if to clinch the matter, it came into the triple marder committed on captain applied to Mr. Bate for advice and was by him directed to see the missioner of public works. Doherty had been before the Stirrendian Marketine Herbert Fuller Nicaraguan consul, Mr. Dennison. That missioner of public works Doherty had been in possession for several days of facts showing that a raid on the vault containing the ballots had been made. It appears from Blanchard's story that two appears from Blanchard's story that two stored growbers and a jimmy had been the barkentine Herbert Fuller was begun before the Stipendiary Magistrate here this morning. It was strictly paid on the arrival of the vessel at San Francisco, whither she is bound with a transfer of the magistrate, besides whom only the witnesses, Lester H. Moncks, who was a cargo of Wellington coal. On the strength of this assurance they returned Blanchard kept the discovery to himself till last Sunday, when he notified Commissioner Doherty of his find. The two went to the head of the stairs and found the tools. They were covered with sand and brickdust. Nothing whatever was done at the time, and no effort was made to ascertain who had brought the tools they had been used.

MURDERED AT SEA.

Soon after the discovery was made.

Blanchard kept the discovery to himself who discovered the murder and gave time as will lead to the conviction of the person or persons who started the bush fire near the old pest house on the Harewood road. The company had a large quantities of float galena. It was bonded to John A. Finch, who spent thousands of dollars the subsequent events. After wood road. The company had a large quantity of "prop (mine) timber" ready for hauling to the mines, but the bush fire consumed every stick.

Soon after the discovery was made.

Soon after the discovery was made.

The Cretan loss was twenty-six then conviction of the conviction of the onviction of the conviction of the onviction of the onvicing of the onviction of the onviction of the onviction of the on authorities are beginning to look for a age to the wires. confession. boxes were removed to the office of

CARLYLE AND McKINLEY.

formerly journal clerk of the house of jewel. convention that he ever told him (Smith) that if the Chicago convention declared for free silver he (Carlisle) would support McKinley. Mr. Smith's card says that in the interview which called forth the denial he was misquoted, he having told the reporter that Mr. Carlisle made the the roadside at Scarboro, near this city, a few days ago, shows that he was the only child of a rich farmer living at Frankfort, a village in Prince Edward county. His father idolized him and spent a large sum of money in educating the lead, though other reports say that him. The son, however, proved a ne'er-the mineral discovered was only float, do-well and ran away from home.

On June 24, his father left him but in boulders of considerable size. on the farm for a few hours, and returning in the evening found him with a strike of ruby silver assaying, so drunk. In a few words that followed it is said, 10,000 ounces. One hundred the son said he would never let his father see him again. He got hold of some money and valuable gold watches walk home when he came to his death. A. Cameron. Samples from the new

SPOKANE UNDER WATER.

SPOKANE, Wn., July 23.-A portion of was a deluge of rain which poured down from midnight until to-night. Many of the houses along the sides of the Shawnee river were completely surrounded by water and the people moved out of them in boats. The sun came out hot after the rein and the people moved of agree where and the people are sufficiently surrounded by water and the people moved out of them in boats. The sun came out hot after stant.

Nanaimo Boys' Brigade in Camp-The Forest Fires on the Islands.

similar manner. Although a thorough examination has been made by Comp-Trouble on a Barque-Mill Manager's Death-Brave Act of an Engineer.

(Special to the COLONIST.)

VANCOUVER.

VANCOUVER, July 23 .- The local companies of the Fifth are organizing a bugle Mayor or Acting Mayor Angelo Vance McKenzie shooting case is to the effect and fife and drum band. Fifty musi-Fawcett. Counsel for the parties inter- that McKenzie met his death by a bul- cians have been secured, and the citi-

WESTMINSTER.

New Westminster, July 23. - The stating Mile creek, saw a child playing on the track in front of the engine. It was impossible to stop the train, which was going down grade at full speed. He there-fore climbed out on the cow-catcher and sational discovery was made. An open- but owing to it being somewhat dark at seizing the child swung it clear of the John Wilson, manager of the Brunette bonded the mineral claim Mountain Saw Mills, died at midnight on Tuesday. Goat, adjoining the Texas, in the dry On investigation it was found that the and on Friday was notified by the Mr. Wilson was for two years president of the Westminster Board of Trade and spector of fruit pests, came up from Victoria westwards. He will leave for Alberni in a day or two for the purpose the vein matter having more or less ore of inspecting the orchards of that dis-has been however amicably ad-It appears that while the vessel and 30 per cent. lead. justed. was in Alaskan waters the former owners has paid one dividend of $12,000. and appointed the first mate in his the mines and smelters in Southern that their claim for wages would not be HALIFAX, July 23 .- A hearing at the allowed by the new owners, several request of U. S. Consul Ingraham members of the crew refused duty. The who discovered the murder and gave tion as will lead to the conviction of the

NANAIMO.

At the police station this morn- returned from the flooded districts of ing it was stated that Bram, the mate, the Mainland, where he gave personal seemed to be breaking down and the supervision to the repairing of the dam-

At the regular meeting of Doric lodge. No. 18, A.F. and A.M., on Tuesday night W. Bro. L. T. Davis, P.M., was present-Washington, July 23.—Harry Smith, ed with an elegant and a valuable souvenir in the shape of a Past Master's

The Boys' Brigade of St. Paul's church representatives, to-day gave out a public went into camp at Newcastle Island this statement concerning the denial by Secretary Carlisle just prior to the Chicago spot and pitched tents in readiness for the main body. The whole of the details in connection with the company's visit will be carried out in true military fashion. Twenty or thirty enthusiastic youngsters are expected to say "here" to the muster roll, for the next week or fortnight, nor can they fail to derive so bad that men have had to leave the district. It is reported that the ground sluicing on the Wonderful has resulted in finding

The Rueccau comes to the fore again

An extremely rich strike is reported and went off to Belleville, and subsequently to Hamilton, indulging in varquently to Hamilton, indulging in various dissipations until the money was all gone. Presumably he was trying to

R. Cameron, T. Davis, J. T. Foley and

It has been decided to begin the constrike are said to assay $100 in gold and 2,000 ounces in silver. The Montana company, operating in White Grouse mountain district, have let the first ten miles of their wagon the waters of a flood at Shawnee Run perienced railway contractor, late of the Creek, which runs through the southern Columbia & Western at Trail Creek, at part of the town. The cause of the flood $950 per mile. He has the privilege of the rain and ruined thousands of acres of corn in this vicinity. The St. Mary's, St. Joseph and Maumee rivers are out of their banks.

With commendable promptitude the Nelson & Fort Sheppard railway has been got into thorough working order their banks.

The stance of August.

The steamer Angerona is running daily, connecting Sanca with the outside world.

J. T. Simpson, of Moose Jaw, N.W.T., With commendable promptitude the Spokane was commenced the passenge punctuality. S. S. Bailey has returned from Spokane and recommenced work on the Pavne. The Surprise will also be opened up again shortly.

Mr. E. D. Carter, one of the owners of the Highland, is letting a contract for 300 feet of tunneling on his claim.

The teams of McGarvey & English are kept busy hauling ore and concentrates from the Skyline and No. 1 mines. The prospects of the Ainsworth camp were never better than at present. A number of strangers have been in town lately looking over mining property, and a couple of deals are nearly completed that will help to make things ively if they go through.

The Ainsworth Trading Company are putting up a building to be used as a store. They have been doing business in Green Bros.' old store since the fire. H. Giegerich has let the contract for excavating for a large fireproof cellar 25x60 feet. D. McLean has the contract and expects to have it finished in a few

S. M. Wharton, owner of the Apache of goods on hand in a few days.

Passengers on the steamer Angerona Passengers on the steamer Angerona claim, recently bonded to the Horne-Payne syndicate and subsequently gobbled up $2,950 worth of Sanca realty jumped on a technicality, announces his on Thursday while the boat lay at the determination to fight the jumpers to dock. Wharton states that he can bring wit- going up. nesses to swear that they saw the stake. It is announced that W. A. Potter has bended the mineral claim Mountain ore belt.

The Whitewater, in tha Slocan, will begin regular shipments so soon as the wagon road connecting the mine with NANAIMO, July 22.—R. M. Palmer, in- the third tunnel a cross-cut to the hang-16 feet wide, and at 270 feet it is eight There was some little trouble on board feet. The shipments up to date have at Three Forks. the Nicaraguan bark Leon yesterday aggregated in value $30,324, the average value of the ore being 107 ounces silver son, matte......230,500 $26,833 Slocan Star mine, Sandon.

Acting under the impression Kootenay since last week's report:

There is said to be a large quantity of ore in sight. The Alhambra Gold & Copper Mining Company which is being organized in Victoria for the purpose of developing the Frances J. and Major, a couple of prospects on Morning mountain, has spent about $600 in developing the roperty, chiefly by means of an open cut and ledge stripping. In running the cut two small 18-inch veins were en-countered before the main 5-foot ledge was reached. An assay made from one of the smaller veins gave $20.34 gold, $6.70 silver, and $46.80 in copper.

On Tuesday Patrick Driver fell from a bucket in a shaft of the White Bear

Forest fires have again been doing considerable damage along the line of the Kaslo & Slocan railway, in the vicinity of Whitewater. On Tuesday last the cabins on the Porcupine were burned and the occupants compelled to seek safety in flight. The buildings on the Wellington and Whitewater claims were also in danger, but workmen were taking measures for their protection.

SANCA.

(From the Nelson Tribune.) Everything about Sanca, at the mouth

ber and material can be secured. E. B. Hosford, one of the Montana parties who have the controlling interest in 14 claims on White Grouse Mounstruction of the wagon road from Sanca to White Grouse by the 25th instant, and push the work forward so as to com plete the 18 miles of road in 40 days. Ten men are working on the Storm SPOKANE, Wh., July 23.—A portion of the first ten miles of their wagon this city was submerged yesterday by road to John R. Patton, an old and exact are sacking assorted ore worth over $100 > the dump which will be shipped after the wagon road is completed. Next week about twenty-five miners will be put to work exploiting the Silver cided majority. The whole clause was Tip, Big Four, Copper King and Golden King claims. The company expect to The defeat of the government was tohave 200 men on the pay roll by the middle of August.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U.S. Gov't Report expects to have a saw mill in operation very soon. He has contracted with the townsite company to cut 250,000 feet of umber the first four months he has his mill running.

At least 100 laboring men and small contractors, and from 25 to 30 experienced miners, will be needed between the 25th instant and August 1. Possibly by the first week in August the different companies and individuals operating in White Grouse district will mploy in the aggregate 500 men.
W. J. Manson, of Nanaimo, is erecting store building, and will have a stock the end. The contention of the jumpers | Four hotels, two stores, a restaurant | to the chapel leaning heavily on the arm | is that stake No. 2 was not put in. | and a number of private residences are | of Prince Christian of Denmark and was KASLO.

(From the Kootenaian.) begun work on the Gibson. The first corations. A white lace veil surmounted work will be a sixty-foot cross-cut with with a diamond tiara covered her head. the object of striking the lead at a greatthe Kaslo & Slocan railway is complet- er depth than the present working, and ed. There is considerable development where it is thought to be solid. The done on the Whitewater. No. 1 tunnel is Gibson is on the South Fork, about one in exquisite taste and liberally set off > was delivered by the K. & S. this week. diamond tiara tipped with white pearls. tion as soon as possible, with a view to was of white brocade silk, the bodice beginning extensive operations.

> Word reached here Thursday that on Wednesday evening bush fires burned Mrs. Joseph Chamberlain wore white out a large section of the Idaho tramway satin, the bodice being almost veiled F. M. O'Brien, local agent of the Provincial Building and Loan Association, received telegraphic advice on Wedneslay that the first two applications by sold her to another firm, who immediately deposed Captain W. Erickson ments of bullion, matte, and ore from $5,000 had been approved by the general board at Toronto.

The water in Kootenay lake reached its highest mark on the 10th inst., and Value. on the 11th began to recede, since which time it has fallen nearly thirty inches. It is expected that within ten days at the most Buchanan's mill and a part of the lower railway yards will be dry.

Kaslo river, too, is falling and all danger of further descriptions. The last few days. The $9,440 of further damage to the low land pro- Turks have been trying to capture perty has passed.

TRAIL CREEK.

(From the Trail Creek News.) The News will not hesitate to say that later dispatch received from the front before another twelve months the camp the Turks lost 200 killed and 600 wound the ledge has been discovered on the Wonderful. This location was made on of Monte Carlo, now called Waterloo ed. The Cretan loss was a capacity of 500 tons per day. The B. C. S. & R. Co. have from July 1 to January 1, 1897.

Eight thousand tons of Le Roi ore this year.

the country for several days in his offi- were destroyed. The flames are graducial capacity as gold commissioner. He will go into the Murphy Creek country for the purpose of attending to the needs for the purpose of inspecting the forests, of that district in regard to trails, he but the commissioners cannot go out on having three thousand dollars to be account of the fires. They estimate the spent on such work in the next twelve damage at many millions of dollars. months.
A. W. Boyd and W. H. Hurlbert, of bucket in a shaft of the White Bear mine at Rossland, and was instantly killed. The shaft is 40 feet deep.

The survey of the wagon road up Tenmile has been completed. This road. mile has been completed. This road when built will be some eight miles ping, showing free gold to the naked eye, and the result is that everybody hereabouts is ready to stampede. This pro-perty is three miles from the railroad down into the valleys, but now those the trail leading up that river.

QUEEN VICTORIA.

LONDON, July 21 .- As the royal proession was leaving Windsor Castle for the railway station, the horses attached to the carriage preceding the one in escape is impossible and a number of to the carriage preceding the one in which the Queen rode, and which bore Her Majesty's Indian attendants, bolted Everything about Sanca, at the mouth of Granite creek, is assuming a business and overturned the carriage. The driver and one of the Queen's attendants were like appearance. A portion of the town- badly hurt. The Queen's carriage folsite has been laid off and a number of persons have secured locations on which buildings will be erected as fast as lumber. There was no demonstrabeen hurt. There was no demonstra-tion along the railway route from Windsor station to Paddington. Arriving at the latter station the Queen walked to her carriage with slight assistance. She appeared to be in good health.

SALISBURY'S DEFEAT.

London, July 23.-The House of Comprovides that in purchase transactions are sacking assorted ore worth over $100 the land committee shall advance money per ton, leaving a quantity of $50 ore on in lieu of the stock heretofore issued. An amendment moved by Sir Thomas Esmond, seeking to continue the exist tally unexpected, and is ascribed to the absence of many ministerial members at the royal wedding. Sir Thos. Esmond's of the temperance cause. amendment was supported by all the Irish members and by the 1rish land-

Dresses of the Queen, Princess of Wales and Duchess of Sparta.

Reception at Malborough House-The Government Defeated on a Catch Vote.

London, July 22.—At the wedding of the Princess Maud the Queen walked inconducted to a chair at the left of and facing the altar. Her Majesty was dressed in black silk and wore the ribbon of Madison Hicks with a small crew has the Order of the Garter and other de-The Princess of Wales wore a gown of rich white silk with silver embroidery in 160 feet; No. 2, 360; and No. 3, 36. A mile from the Black Fox, and has a fine with diamonds. The Duchess of fourth tunnel was commenced last month and is now in some ten feet. In The Lucky Jim compressed air plant and silver brocade and a magnificent The gown worn by the Duchess of York trimmed with Point d'Alencon lace. She also wore a tiara of diamonds and pearls. with white chiffon.

All the guests proceeded after the wedding to Marlborough House, where a reception was held. The streets through which they drove to the railway station were lined with enthusiastic crowds. The city was illuminated to-night in honor of the wedding. The government were to-day defeated during the absence of a number of ministerial members at the royal wedding. It was on a motion offered by Sir Henry Esmond, supported by the Irish mem-heights on the Kissamo Selino road. If they could capture this position they would cut off the western portion of Crete from the rest of the islands. A states that in the course of the fighting contracts for the entire output of the War S. Clother & Son at Central Station, on Eagle, Iron Mask and Virginia mines the Bellingham Bay and British Columbia railway; loss $20,000. The entirehave been handled by the Trail smelter country north of here is in flames. Four his year.

Capt. Fitzstubbs has been in town and of side track of the B.B. & B.C. railroad

A strong wind has been blowing from the east for the past 24 hours, clearing been the means of fanning the fires into ing across the mountains and down the valleys with terrible rapidity. When the air was still the fires were confined siding at North Fork, and a mile from who sought safety there are compelled to flee for their lives. News from points along the Columbia is to the effect that the high wind has fanned the smouldering embers into fresh blazes and where the miners thought they were safe, the fire having passed over them, they find themselves deaths may be the result.

A BURNING METEOR

CITY OF MEXICO, July 23 .- A remarkble phenomenon at the mine of Santos curred yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock A tremendous explosion was heard and an enormous mass of burning matter was seen to fall from the heavens, striking the side of the mountain and bringing down with it in its course the entire cliffs. It finally plunged into the ground, making a hole from which boilng water still issues. One of the most singular phenomena observed was the heavy rainfall immediately after the demons yesterday considered in committee scent of the meteor. The people are clause 24 of the Irish land bill, which very superstitious as this is one of the many realizations of the prophecies of the vision-seeing girl of Tabasco. The same meteor destroyed the house of a miner, killing two children.

TORONTO, July 23.—The remains of Mrs. Letitia Yeomans were interred yes-terday at Picton, the service being held in the Methodist church. Many high tributes were paid to the deceased lady tributes were paid to the deceased for her long and active service on behalf