Lobb, Manghan, Ellicit and the mover be a sub-committee to report on the straightening of the Don river and drainage of the eastern portion of the city, which was carried. The question of exemptions was next taken up, and although all present were in favor of a sweeping reform no one cared about taking the initiative. After several references to the act with explanatory re-marks by the city solicitor and the assess-ment commissioner, Ald. Lobb moved that the lieut. gov. in council be petitioned to grant the city power to disallow all ex-emptions. Soli itor MoWilliams again explained the provincial legislature : ad no power to pass such a bill unless the British North America act was amended and the motion was finally carried with the addi-tion, "other than those exempted by the British North America act." The question of ohanging the wards was allowed to stand over and after some dis-oussion it was decided to recommend that the school trustees be elected at the same time and by the same mode as the alder-men. James T. Houseman, bookkeeper for don, who visited Ireland in an endeavor to prevent reckless immigration to this coun-Harris & Oldham, Yonge street, was turntry, says that in no part of Ireland did he find such utter wretchedness as exists among some of the same nationality in ing the corner of St. Patrick street and Denison avenue about 11 o'clock Saturday night when he was attacked by three men, night when he was attacked by three men, one of whom threw a coat over his head, stifling his cries, while the others kicked and clubbed him senseless. They then re lieved him of a silver watch and gold chain, a check for $22 and $13 in cash and made off. Houseman is a powerful man and made a vigorous resistance, but the three men were too much for him, and it was nearly an hour before he recovered con-sciousness. Bown on Co-Education.
