The Week in Business.

The week in business has been fairly active.

Travelers report good orders booked prior to the announcement of the tariff changes.

but the week closes with travelers recalled, and prices generally unsettled pending the results of the tariff changes. The outlook is encouraging.

The Attack on Mr. O'Brien.

Mr. Edward Blake has called upon to address a letter to his organ expressing a feeling of indignation at the disgraceful and cowardly course which has been pursued towards Mr. O'Brien. We can understand the feeling of indignation at the disgraceful and
