PEAS—Are steady at 56½ to 57c, outside.
PRODUCE—Eggs are ifrmer at 12½c to 13c.
The firmness is explained by the large adaptments which are being made to the U.S. by dealers who anticipate that the 5c a dozen duty will go into effect at an early day. No reduction in price is anticipated until the end of June. There are large arrivals of butter and prices are weak at 13½c to 14c, with poorer stuff as low as 5c to 8c. Totatoes are worth 70c in car lots and 80c for small jobbing lots. The arrivals are unusually large, and as the bottom has fallen out of the Montreal market lower prices are anticipated. There is a cool day at 35 cech.
