WITTY ANSWERS.

Many brief and telling replies are laid to the account of Douglas Jerrold. It will suffice to recall one.
"What's going on?" said a bore, stopping Jerrold on the street. "I am," and the speaker suited the action to the word.

Akin to this was the answer of John Wesley to the blustering swaggler who pushed against him on the path, with the insulting remark, "I never make way for a fool." "Always do," said Wesley, quietly stepping aside, and then placidly pursuing his way.

ject to colic and diarrhoea. Last spring it seemed as though I would die, and I think I would, if I hadn't taken Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I haven't been troubled with it since until this week, when I had a very severe attack and took half a bottle of the WEDDING RECEPTION.

(Lowell, Mass., paper.)
Mr. and Mrs. Oal Samuel Young, who have recently returned from a pleasant trip, were given a very delightful reception last evening at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs.
Charles M. Young, in Stevens street.

The affair lasted from 8 o'clock until after 10, and there were friends and relatives present to wish Mr. and Mrs. Young success.

The house was prettily decorated, and the receiving couple stood under a canopy of green. All of the presents were in evidence, and they were numerous and very handsome.

The ushers were Miss Bessie I.
Moore, a sister of the bride, who was formerly Miss Ora Pauline Moore, and Miss Minta M. Veinot.

Miss Jessie Frost and Miss Grace Longmore, of Portland, and Miss Ethel Noyes, Miss Lizzie Shepard and Miss Della Baker served.

Among those present from out-town were Mr. and Mrs. Frank M.
Spicer from Brockton, Mrs. Herman Hodgson and son from Haverhill, Mrs.
George Donald from Wakefield, and Mr. and Mrs. Lou Pickering from Wakefield.

MRS. ALDRICH CAMERON.

Mrs. Aldrich Cameron peacefully passed away Wednesday p. m., July 31st. The change came suddenly. She was out in her hammock the day before as usual. Soon after retiring Tuesday night she found oppression in breathing, suffering extremely for twelve hours. Shortly before the end came, she was relieved and after leaving some love messages, sweetly closed her eyes to enter her mansion "incorruptible, undefiled, that fadeeth not away" to behold her Saviour face to face. Mrs. Cameron was in Maine, not able to reach home until Friday p. m.
His three brothers from the United States came Saturday. The funeral service conducted by Pastor Martell, assisted by Rev. J. A. Corbett, was at the residence of Alex. Millett, Clements-vale where Mrs. Cameron spent the last weeks of her life. Two solos, "Face to face," by Herbert Johnson and "There is a land mine eye hath seen," sung by Mrs. Clara Corbett, Jamaica Plains, were much appreciated by all.
Mrs. Corbett sings with great expression and has been cultured voice under perfect control. Much sympathy is felt for Mr. Cameron in his bereavement. He and his wife will long be remembered in this place by the good they have done.
