Bridgelown Board of Trade

A meeting of the Bridgetown Board f Trade was held in the Counci

of Trade was held in the Counci-Chamber, Friday evening. The importance of the business be-fore the Board called for a mucl-larger attendance of the business me-of the town. The President, Dr. M. F. Armstrong, occupied the chair, and i-the absence of the Secretary, Mr-Henry B. Hicks, who was out of town Mr. Chong R. Chingan was appointed

Henry B: Hicks, who was out of 'town Mr. Chas. R. Chipman was appointed secretary pro tem. The following were appointed del egates to the quarterly meeting of th Western Board of Trade, which con $$12 'Aupson, uo 'doiff' dudy up and inst: Capt. J. W. Salter, Henry E Hicks and Dr. M. E. Armstrong, wit Mayor Longmire and A. B. McKenzie as alternates.

The name of O. S. Dunham was proposed and duly elected to membership in the Board.

The matter of a change in telephon The matter of a charge in telephone gervice thruout the Province, as fur nished by the Maritime Telephone and Telegraph Company, Limited, am the rates to be charged for such ser vice, was quite freely discussed, bu no action was taken in the matter. A wide-a-wake Board of Trade i a most valuable asset to any fown ord a greater interest in the Bridge and a greater interest in the Bridge town Board is certainly desirable.

City Girls on the Farm

Kentville Advertiser: Mr. San Kentville Advertiser: Mr. San Chute's fruit farm at Berwick is now a veritable hive of industry. With or chard, field crops, beans, strawberries etc., to care for it requires quite an army of people to look after it all. Mr Chute expects to produce this seasor over 60,000 boxes of strawberries and over 60,000 boxes of strawberries and the season is in full swing, and the fields are filled with boys and girl-picking the lucious fruit. This week a group of young ladies will arrive from Halifax to assist Mr. Chute in berry-picking. They will show how competent city girls can become in form a factor of the season of th farm production.
