

CONTENTS.

FIRST EPISTLE.

Mr. Hugh Airlie fulfils a promise—How the ignorance of a “coonter happer” made him mad—His disgust at a man who would tell a “lee.”.....	PAGE. 9
--	------------

SECOND EPISTLE.

Hugh's idea of Toronto's Semi-Centennial Celebration—How an independent Canadian lass spoiled her chances of an offer of marriage—An idea of who invented the electric light.....	11
---	----

THIRD EPISTLE.

Mr. Airlie's sensible remarks on the Boundary Question—An adventure with a seeker after fresh air—How a party dance scandalized the honest Scotchman—The effect of eating too much ice-cream.....	14
---	----

FOURTH EPISTLE.

Gives Hugh's experience in trying to ride a bicycle.....	18
--	----

FIFTH EPISTLE.

Hugh becomes a Book Agent and relates what befell him in his endeavor to Enlighten the People.....	21
--	----

SIXTH EPISTLE.

Hugh's further adventures as a Book Agent—And his horror at being taken for a Dynamiter—The lucky denouements.....	25
--	----

SEVENTH EPISTLE.

Relates how a “deevil o’ a clerk” led Hugh a wild-goose chase on a hunt for a wife, and Hugh's resolve to get even “wi’ that imp o’ Sautan.”.....	29
---	----