

CHAPTER XXI.

Marriage ceremony—return to Tashees—John goes to house-keeping—is told he must change his dress—religious observance—revenge of a husband towards his wife—removal to Cooptee—taking wild geese—return to Nootka—John is sick—a slave dies. - - - - - 219

CHAPTER XXII.

John continues sick—he is divorced from his wife—she goes to her father—John recovers—an eclipse of the moon—a vessel arrives—consultation about the captives—a letter written to be carried by Maquina to the vessel. - 228

CHAPTER XXIII.

Maquina questions John—He takes the letter—is detained in irons on board the brig—rage and grief of the natives—Thompson is sent to the vessel—John is also carried out—his arrival at the brig—account of the brig—how she came there—demand of the things belonging to the Boston. 233